

A 2000
11188

Studies in Social Ecology and Environmental History

Pastoral Politics

Shepherds, Bureaucrats, and Conservation in the Western Himalaya

Vasant K. Saberwal

DELHI
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
CALCUTTA CHENNAI MUMBAI
1999

Contents

Tables	xiii
Figures	xv
Abbreviations	xvii
A Note on Referencing and Spelling	xix
1. Pastoralism and Environmental Alarm	1
2. Access to Forage: Interplay of Property, Labour, Wealth and Networks	12
3. A Question of Control	44
4. Circumvention and Negotiation	66
5. Changing Rationale for Forest Conservancy	91
6. Science and the Desiccationist Discourse	113
7. Uhl Valley Case Study: Rhetoric and Ecological Uncertainty	142
8. Degradation and Shepherd Land Usage	165
9. Theoretical Considerations	193
10. Conclusion	209
Appendix-I: Methods and Approach	220
Appendix-II: A Worked Example of Profits from Herding	227
Appendix-III: Departmental Designations in Ascending Seniority	229
Bibliography	230
Index	240