

A
902007

Linga
Th 440

Imported Modernity in Post-Colonial State Formation

The Appropriation of Political, Educational, and Cultural Models in Nineteenth-Century
Latin America

edited by Eugenia Roldán Vera & Marcelo Caruso

PETER LANG

Europäischer Verlag der Wissenschaften

(2007)

CONTENTS

Introduction: Avoiding the National, Assessing the Modern Eugenia Roldán Vera and Marcelo Caruso	7
--	---

PART I: RESHAPING THE POLITICAL ORDER

Between the Old and the New Regime: The Triumph of the Intermediate Bodies in the Quito Audience, 1765-1830 Federica Morelli	31
---	----

Insurrectionist Tradition and Utilitarianism Imported: The Intellectual and Political Trajectories of the Elites in the Rio de la Plata , 1810-1825 Beatriz Dávila	61
--	----

Old Regional Antagonisms and Imported Political Models: The Liberal Invention of a Salvadoran State Identity, 1821-1829 Sajid Alfredo Herrera	95
--	----

Mid Nineteenth-Century Ideological Radicalization in Peru: The French Post-Revolutionary Influence Natalia Sobrevilla Perea	129
--	-----

"Democracy in South America." The "New Generation" and the Reception of Tocqueville's De la démocratie en Amérique : The Path of River Plate Liberalism, 1840-1852 Jorge Myers	153
---	-----

PART II: FORGING THE NEW CITIZENS: MONITORIAL SCHOOLING AND ITS CONSEQUENCES

Imported Englishness: Henry Christophe's Educational Programme in Haiti, 1806-1820 Karen Racine	205
Export as Import: James Thomson's Civilising Mission in South America, 1818-1825 Eugenia Roldán Vera	231
New Schooling and the Invention of a Political Culture: Community, Rituals and Meritocracy in Colombian Monitorial Schools, 1821-1842 Marcelo Caruso	277
In the Name of Civilization: Compulsory Education and Cultural Politics in Brazil in the 19th Century Luciano Mendes de Faria Filho and José G. Gondra	307

PART III: REFASHIONING CULTURAL PRACTICES

Consumption and Excess in Colonial and Early-Independent Spanish America Rebecca Earle	341
Ranke in Mexico: The Process of Professionalization of History, A Century Later? Guillermo Zermeño	363
Index.....	395
Biobibliographical Notes.....	407