

✓ POST-COMMUNIST TRANSITION AS A EUROPEAN PROBLEM

Edited by Stefano Bianchini, George Schöpflin & Paul Shoup

A 361803

Contents

- page 9 Stefano Bianchini, George Schöpflin and Paul Shoup
Introduction - Post Communist Transition as a European Problem
- PART ONE - ADAPTING DEMOCRACY
- 21 Jean Blondel
How the Process of Political Transition from Communism can be Monitored and how the Moment of Consolidation can be Determined
- 31 András Bozóki
Democratic Design and "Return" to Europe: Discourses of the Roundtable Talks of 1989
- 59 Luisa Chiodi
Promoting Civil Society: local NGOs in the Balkans since the 90's
- 79 Stamenka Uvalic-Trumbic
Universities and Politics: Reshaping Relations in South Eastern Europe?
- PART TWO - RESHAPING THE STATE
- 97 George Schöpflin
Post-communism and the Perceptions of Europe

page 105	Carla Tonini Poland after Schengen. Bridge into the East or Bulwark of Europe?
117	Zoltán Balázs Vizi National Sovereignty and Human Rights in Central and Eastern Europe after 1990
131	Malina Kroumova Defining the Parameters of State Policy towards Minorities: the Balkan Experience in the 90's
155	Julie Mostov Soft Borders: Rethinking Sovereignty and Democracy
173	Paul Shoup The West and the War in Bosnia: Some Thoughts
185	Stefano Bianchini Post Communism, Post-Westfalianism. Overcoming the Nation-State
203	Index
209	List of Contributors