

Contents

---

1 Writing about Literature 3

---

Why Write? 3

The Nature of Critical Writing 4

A Sample Essay 5

Some Kinds of Essays 8

Two Common Approaches 9

Explication 9

A Sample Explication 10

Analysis 11

A Sample Analysis 14

Writing a Review 17

Organization 18

Tone 20

Finding a Manageable Topic 22

Sample Topics in Fiction 24

Sample Topics in Drama 25

Sample Topics in Poetry 26

Considering the Evidence 27

Organizing the Material: Comparisons 28

Communicating Judgments 32

Review: How to Write an Effective Essay 33

2 Style and Format 37

---

Principles of Style 37

Get the Right Word 38

Denotation 38; Connotation 38; Concreteness 39;

Levels of Usage 40; Repetition and Variation 42;

The Sound of Sense 44

Write Effective Sentences 44

Economy 44; Parallels 45; Subordination 46

Write Unified and Coherent Paragraphs 47

Unity 47; Coherence 50; Introductory

Paragraphs 50; Concluding Paragraphs 52

Write Emphatically 54

A Note on Authors' Names and Other

Troublesome Matters 55

Remarks about Manuscript Form 56

Basic Manuscript Form 56

Quotations and Quotation Marks 57

Footnotes 60

Kinds of Footnotes 60; What to Footnote 60;

Numbering and Positioning Footnotes 62;

Footnote Style 62; First Reference to a Book 63;

First Reference to a Journal 64; Subsequent

References 65; References to Introductions and to

Reprinted Essays 66; Secondhand References 67

Bibliography 67

PART TWO

3 Writing about Fiction 73

---

The World of the Story 73

Plot and Character 73

Foreshadowing 75

Setting and Atmosphere 78

Symbolism 81

Sample Essay: Atmosphere as Symbol 82

Point of View 87

Third-Person Narrators 88

First-Person Narrators 90

Theme 94

Vision or Discourse 94

Determining and Discussing the Theme 96

Concluding Remarks 100

Sample Essays 102

- David Lodge, The Rhetoric of a Page of Hard Times 103
 John Daremo, Insight into Horror: The Narrator in Faulkner's "A Rose for Emily" 108

4 Writing about Drama 112

---

Types of Plays 112

- Tragedy 112
 Comedy 116
 Tragicomedy 117

Aspects of Drama 119

- Theme 119
 Plot 121
 Sample Essay on Structure 125
 Conventions 130
 Gestures and Settings 130
 Characterization and Motivation 133

Concluding Remarks 135*Sample Essays 136

- Kenneth Muir, Hamlet's Foil 137
 Joseph Wood Krutch, *Moral Vision in
 Arthur Miller and Tennessee Williams* 140

5 Writing about Poetry 145

---

Harmony and Mimicry 145

- Varieties of Imitation 147
 The Speaker and the Poet 149

The Language of Poetry 150

- Diction and Tone 150
 Paraphrase and Explication 152
 A Sample Explication 154
 Figurative Language 156
 Imagery and Symbolism 160
 Sample Essay on the Speaker in a Poem 162

Structure 165

- Repetitive 165
 Narrative 166
 Logical 167
Verbal Irony 169; Paradox 169

Concluding Remarks 170

Rhythm and Versification: A Glossary	173
Meter	175
Metrical Feet	175; Metrical Lines	177
Patterns of Sounds	178
Stanzaic Patterns	180
Blank Verse and Free Verse	181
Sample Essays	182
Mark Van Doren, Wordsworth's "The Solitary Reaper"	182
Donald Hall, Hardy's "Transformations"	186

6 Writing about Film 192

---

Film as a Medium	192
Film Techniques	195
Shots	196
Sequences	197
Transitions	198
Editing	199
Theme	201
Getting Ready to Write	203
Sample Essay on Visual Symbols	204
Concluding Remarks	210
Sample Essays	211
Charles Michener, Cooling the Jazz Age	212
Penelope Gilliatt, Dillinger	215

Appendixes 219

---

Appendix A: Research Papers	219
What Research Is	219
Primary and Secondary Materials	220
From Topic to Thesis	221
Locating Material: First Steps	222
Other Bibliographic Aids	223
Taking Notes	224
Writing the Paper	226
Appendix B: Essay Examinations	227
What Examinations Are	227
Writing Essay Answers	228
Appendix C: William Faulkner, A Rose for Emily	231