

Global Democracy and its Difficulties

SUB Hamburg

A/494281

Edited by Anthony J. Langlois
and Karol Edward Sołtan

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

Notes on contributors	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
List of figures and tables	xv

Preface	xvi
STEPHEN L. ELKIN

1 Introduction: the difficulties of global democratization	1
ANTHONY J. LANGLOIS

Democracy and institutional complexity

2 Mature democracy and global solidarity	17
KAROL EDWARD SOLTAN
3 From the “democracy of nations” to stakeholders-based governance systems	35
PAUL DRAGOS ALIGICA

Human rights, sovereignty and the global economy

4 Global democracy through transnational human rights	54
MICHAEL GOODHART
5 Exploring the narratives on economic globalization: making room for democracy	68
DAVID K. MOORE

Global constitutionalism

- 6 Judicial networks 82
JENS MEIERHENRICH
- 7 The justice as diplomat: the foreign-policy frameworks
behind the US Supreme Court's new globalism 95
KEN I. KERSCH

Challenges to the democratic state

- 8 Trade policy openness, government spending, and democratic consolidation: a preliminary investigation 112
MICHAEL J. HISCOX AND SCOTT L. KASTNER
- 9 Competitive clientalism: rethinking elections in the MENA and the prospects for democracy 130
ELLEN LUST-OKAR

Global democracy and universal values

- 10 Liberal autonomy and global democracy 146
ANTHONY J. LANGLOIS
- 11 Reconceiving autonomy and universality as norms for transnational democracy 160
CAROL C. GOULD
- Notes* 173
Bibliography 182
Index 201