

Improving Local Government

Outcomes of Comparative Research

Edited by:

SUB Hamburg

A/489956

Michiel S. de Vries

*Professor of Public Administration
Nijmegen School of Management
Raboud University
Nijmegen*

P.S. Reddy

*Senior Professor of Public Administration
School of Public Administration
University of Kwazulu Natal*

M. Shamsul Haque

*Professor of Public Administration
Department of Political Science
National University of Singapore*

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

Preface	viii
About the Contributors	xi
1 Introduction	1
P.S. Reddy, M. Shamsul Haque and Michiel S. de Vries
2 Metropolitan Governance in Latin America	9
Cristina A. Rodriguez-Acosta and Allan Rosenbaum
2.1 Introduction	9
2.2 Urbanization in Latin America	9
2.3 Governance in Latin America	11
2.4 Metropolitan areas in Central America	23
2.5 Conclusion	28
2.6 Notes	30
3 Local Governance in South Asia	32
M. Shamsul Haque
3.1 Introduction	32
3.2 Patterns of local government in South Asia	33
3.3 Current challenges to local governance	38
3.4 Possibilities for effective local governance	42
4 Metropolises in Africa	45
P.S. Reddy
4.1 Introduction	45
4.2 Governance and metropolis: defining the terms	47
4.3 Problems and challenges of metropolitan areas	48
4.4 Metropolitan government in South Africa	52
4.5 Problems of metropolitan governance	64
4.6 Effective decision-making and political efficacy	69
4.7 Conclusion	69
4.8 Notes	71

5 Using Indigenous Knowledge	72
Geoffrey I. Nwaka
5.1 Introduction	72
5.2 Research and policy issues	74
5.3 Indigenous knowledge and good governance	76
5.4 Indigenous knowledge and urban governance	78
5.5 The potential role of indigenous knowledge in Nigeria	81
5.6 Conclusion	85
6 The Crux of Intergovernmental Relations	88
Abie J. Geldenhuys
6.1 Introduction	88
6.2 Conceptualizing intergovernmental relations	89
6.3 A South African local government example	91
6.4 Local government democratization	92
6.5 Intergovernmental relations in practice	94
6.6 Relationships in government: IDP as a case-scenario	98
6.7 Development of intergovernmental relations	104
6.8 Conclusion	105
7 Improving Local Management	107
Hendri Kroukamp and Lizeel Lues
7.1 Introduction	107
7.2 Dimensions of the crucial concepts	107
7.3 Effectiveness, renovation and modernization	109
7.4 The need for a new governing framework	121
7.5 Examples	123
7.6 Policy implementation and local management	128
7.7 Conclusion	131
8 The Role of Community Leadership	133
Lyndon du Plessis
8.1 Introduction	133
8.2 Leadership and changing public management	133
8.3 Local government in context	134
8.4 Local government and leadership	136
8.5 Political leadership	136
8.6 Managerial leadership	138
8.7 Civil leadership	142

8.8	Citizen participation and community leadership	143
8.9	Conclusion	147
9	Involving Private Enterprise in Local Development	148
	Korel Göymen
9.1	Introduction	148
9.2	Global challenges and local responses	149
9.3	The merits of public-private partnerships	152
9.4	Turkey: from government to governance?	158
9.5	Types and cases of private-enterprise involvement	162
9.6	Factors contributing to the success of PPP	166
9.7	Conclusion	167
10	Best Practices in Local Government	170
	Christina W. Andrews
10.1	Introduction	170
10.2	What is a best practice?	170
10.3	Can a best practice be transferred?	172
10.4	The factors approach to best practice	178
10.5	Conclusions	191
10.6	Notes	192
11	Conclusion: Practical Puzzles, Theoretical Explanations	193
	M. Shamsul Haque, Michiel S. de Vries and P.S. Reddy
11.1	Introduction	193
11.2	Major findings on local governance	194
11.3	Theoretical views on local government	195
11.4	Major limits of local government theories	197
11.5	The need for new theory and practice	198
	References	200
	Index	220