

A/586598

In the Steps of Rosa Luxemburg

Selected Writings of Paul Levi

Edited and introduced by David Fernbach

Haymarket Books
Chicago, IL

Contents

Introduction	1
--------------------	---

Part One Leading the KPD

Address to the Founding Congress of the KPD	35
Letter to Lenin (1919)	43
The Munich Experience: An Opposing View	47
The Political Situation and the KPD (October 1919)	54
The Lessons of the Hungarian Revolution	70
The World-Situation and the German Revolution	79
The Beginning of the Crisis in the Communist Party and the International	92
Letter to Loriot	113

Part Two The March Action

Our Path: Against Putschism	119
What Is the Crime: The March Action or Criticising It?	166
Letter to Lenin (1921)	206
The Demands of the Kommunistische Arbeitsgemeinschaft	212

Part Three
The Soviet Question

Letter to Clara Zetkin 217
Introduction to Rosa Luxemburg’s Pamphlet The Russian Revolution 220
Introduction to Trotsky, The Lessons of October 257
The Retreat from Leninism 266
After Ten Years 269
Approaching the End 272
Return 277

Part Four
The German Republic

The Murder of Erzberger 283
The Needs of the Hour 290
Why Are We Joining the United Social-Democratic Party 296
The Assassination of Rathenau 308
The Situation after Rathenau’s Death 316
The Reich and the Workers 321
The Defenders of the Republic 328
After the Oath 333

References 337
Index 339