

SUB Hamburg

A 2014/ 7588

Mobilizing for Democracy

Comparing 1989 and 2011

Donatella della Porta

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Figures	xi
List of Tables	xiii
Abbreviations	xv
1. Democratization and Social Movements	1
2. Eventful Democratization: When Protest Changes Relations	27
3. Mobilizing Resources for Democracy	66
4. Framing Democracy: The Cognitive Dimension of Mobilization	111
5. Repression and Challengers	138
6. Appropriation of Opportunities	160
7. Participated Pacts and Social Movements	197
8. Violent Uprisings, Troubled Democratization	237
9. In The Name of The Nation: Nationalism as Opportunity and Risk	268
10. Mobilizing for Democracy: Some Conclusions	295
Bibliographical References	319
Mobilizing for Democracy working papers	351
Index	353