

Community Management and Common Property of Coastal Fisheries in Asia and the Pacific: Concepts, Methods and Experiences

Edited by R.S. Pomeroy

1994

UB/TIB Hannover 89
113 049 544

International Center for Living Aquatic Resources Management

Contents

Foreword • M.J. WILLIAMS	v
Acknowledgement	vi
Abstract	vii
Introduction • R.S. POMEROY	1
The role of government in coastal resources management • A.C. ALCALA and F.J. VANDE VUSSE	12
Frameworks for understanding resource management on the commons • D. FEENY	20
Institutional analysis, design principles and threats to sustainable community governance and management of commons • E. OSTROM	34
Property rights and coastal fisheries • F. BERKES	51
Changing the focus of coastal fisheries management • K. RUDDLE	63
Forest farmers and fishers as stewards of community resources • M. RACELIS	87
Research directed at developing local organizations for people's participation in fisheries management • R.B. POLLNAC	94
Towards an integrated community management of coastal fisheries • J. KURIEN	107
Planning and management of small-scale coastal fisheries • K. KUPERAN VISWANATHAN and N.M.R. ABDULLAH	115
Creating dialogue and generating information • H.J. McARTHUR, JR.	124
The role of nongovernmental organizations in community-based coastal resources management • C.T. AÑONUEVO	145
Problems encountered in the implementation of a community-based fishery resource management project • R.F. AGBAYANI and S.V. SIAR	149
The Central Visayas Regional Project: experience in community-based coastal resources management • R.M. BOJOS, JR.	161

Community-based coastal resources management: the Palawan experience

- R.M. SANDALO 165
- I. List of Participants 182
- II. Workshop Program 187