

Mediatization and Religion

Nordic Perspectives

Stig Hjarvard & Mia Lövheim (eds)

NORDICOM

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Stig Hjarvard & Mia Lövheim Introduction	9
MEDIATIZATION, PUBLIC MEDIA AND THE NATIONAL CHURCH
Stig Hjarvard Three Forms of Mediatized Religion. Changing the Public Face of Religion	21
Peter Fischer-Nielsen The Internet Mediatization of Religion and Church	45
Henrik Reintoft Christensen Mediatization, Deprivatization, and Vicarious Religion. Coverage of Religion and Homosexuality in the Scandinavian Mainstream Press	63
Marcus Moberg & Sofia Sjö The Evangelical Lutheran Church and the Media in Post-Secular Finland	79
THE MEDIATIZATION OF SOCIAL CONFLICTS
Knut Lundby & Kjersti Thorbjørnsrud Mediatization of Controversy. When the Security Police Went on Facebook	95
Jobanna Sumiala Ritualising Death in the Media. Symbolic Immortality, The Immanent Frame, and School Shootings	109
RELIGIOUS IDENTITY AND A CHANGING MEDIA ENVIRONMENT
Mia Lövheim A Voice of Their Own. Young Muslim Women, Blogs and Religion	129

Ehab Galal Belonging through Believing. Becoming Muslim through Islamic Programming	147
RELIGION AND POPULAR MEDIA CULTURE
Line Nybro Petersen Danish Twilight Fandom. Transformative Processes of Religion	163
Liv Ingeborg Lied Religious Change and Popular Culture. With a Nod to the Mediatization of Religion Debate	183
Index	203
Notes on the contributors	207