

Museums in Postcolonial Europe

Edited by Dominic Thomas

Contents

	Museums in postcolonial Europe: an introduction Dominic Thomas	1
1	Colonial museums in a postcolonial Europe Robert Aldrich	12
2	Negotiating a national memory: the British Empire & Commonwealth Museum Corinna McLeod	32
3	Finding a home in Hackney? Reimagining narratives of slavery through a multicultural community museum space Zoe Norridge	41
4	Museum practices and the Belgian colonial past: questioning the memories of an ambivalent metropole Véronique Bragard and Stéphanie Planche	54
5	Displaying colonial artifacts in Paris at the Musée Permanent des Colonies and Musée du Quai Branly Fassil Demissie	65
6	'Le Musée d'Art au Hasard': responses of Black Paris to French museum culture Bennetta Jules-Rosette and Erica Fontana	84
7	Will the Musée du Quai Branly show France the way to postcoloniality? Herman Lebovics	101
8	Still the family secret? The representation of colonialism in the Cité nationale de l'histoire de l'immigration Mary Stevens	115
9	Object/subject migration: the National Centre of the History of Immigration Dominic Thomas	126
	Index	140