

Hitchcock's Motifs

Michael Walker

AMSTERDAM UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgements	13
Introduction	15
Part I Hitchcock, Motifs and Melodrama
Introduction	25
Three motifs	26
Home movies	26
Cigarette case/lighter	26
Milk	29
Melodrama and Hitchcock's motifs	30
An elaborated motif: the Bed Scene in REBECCA and MARNIE	35
A melodramatic motif: hands	43
Diagrammatic representations	46
Overview of the key motifs	50
Part II The Key Motifs
BED SCENE	57
Couples and beds	63
Beds and the police	67
BLONDES AND BRUNETTES	69
Blondes versus brunettes	70
Blond allure/blond iconography	77
Blondes, brunettes and violence	83
Blondes, brunettes and the police	86

CAMEO APPEARANCES	87
Cameos and the police	96
CHILDREN	98
Children's cameos	98
Family members	102
Children and violence	105
Children and the police	110
CONFINED SPACES	111
Bathrooms and washrooms	112
Confinement and concealment	115
Cages and bars: fears of imprisonment	118
Washrooms and the police	122
THE CORPSE	123
The heroines	124
The heroes	129
The villains	134
Corpses and the police	139
DOGS AND CATS	142
Dogs and the police	145
DOUBLES	146
Doubles and the police	153
ENDINGS AND THE POLICE	154
ENTRY THROUGH A WINDOW	158
Entry through a window and the police	162
EXHIBITIONISM / VOYEURISM / THE LOOK	164
EXHIBITIONISM / VOYEURISM	164
SPY FILMS / THE LOOK	171
Exhibitionism, voyeurism and the police	177
FOOD AND MEALS	179
Food and marriage	180
Food and sex	184
Food and murder	187

Food and guilt	190
Chickens and eggs	194
Table talk and fascism	196
Food and the police	200
GUILT AND CONFESSION	201
Catholic overtones	201
Guilt and Hitchcock's villains	207
Transference of guilt	210
Guilt, confession and the police	213
HANDCUFFS AND BONDAGE	214
HANDS	220
Male hands/female hands	221
Held wrists	225
Damaged hands	229
Holding hands	231
Hands and the police	236
HEIGHTS AND FALLING	238
Heights, falling and the police	247
HOMOSEXUALITY	248
Critical positions	248
Gay undercurrents	251
Espionage and the look	255
Ivor Novello	259
Homosexuality and the police	261
JEWELLERY	262
Greed	263
Status	263
Female desire	264
Female beauty/male power	264
Male murderousness	265
Jewellery and the police	268
KEYS AND HANDBAGS	269
KEYS	270
Keys and handbags	275

HANDBAGS	277
Handbags and keys	280
Keys, handbags and the police	284
LIGHT(S)	286
Vampires and blinding	286
Murder and homosexuality	290
Lights and the police	295
THE MACGUFFIN	296
The MacGuffin and the police	306
MOTHERS AND HOUSES	307
Mothers and the police	318
PORTRAITS, PAINTINGS AND PAINTERS	319
PORTRAITS	320
PAINTINGS	327
Modern art	328
PAINTERS	329
Portraits, paintings and the police	334
PUBLIC DISTURBANCES	335
Public disturbances and the police	343
SPECTACLES	344
Spectacles and the police	349
STAIRCASES	350
Hitchcockian levels	355
Political variations	359
Sinister staircases	363
Freudian overtones	366
Couples and staircases	368
Staircases and the police	371
TRAINS AND BOATS / PLANES AND BUSES	373
TRAINS	374
BOATS	378
PLANES	381
BUSES	384

Trains and boats and the police	387
WATER AND RAIN	388
WATER	388
RAIN	393
Water and the police	400
Appendix I: TV Episodes	401
BED SCENE	402
CHILDREN	403
CONFINED SPACES	405
THE CORPSE	407
DOUBLES	408
FOOD AND MURDER / ENDINGS AND THE POLICE	410
LIGHTS	412
BOATS	414
Appendix II: Articles on Hitchcock's motifs	416
Appendix III: Definitions	418
Diegesis	418
Point-of-view editing	418
References	421
Filmography	431
List of illustrations	463
Index of Hitchcock's films and their motifs	467
General Index	481