

CONTENTS

List of figures	x
Preface	xi
1 Introduction	1
1.1 The purpose of the book	2
1.2 A broad and founded societal perspective	4
1.3 Researching inequality	6
1.4 Outline of the book	9
2 What is inequality?	12
2.1 Income and exchange-value	14
2.2 Labour power and use-value	17
2.3 Housing and the value of it	20
2.4 Unemployment – not taking part	23
2.5 Working but unpaid	27
2.6 Employed but on precarious conditions	28
2.7 Conclusions: Inequalities – how many are there?	33
3 Why does inequality exist?	36
3.1 Potential and actual causes	36
3.2 Causes are inherent in social structures ...	39
3.3 ... and also in contexts of meaning (cultures)	43
3.4 Conclusions: So who and what causes inequality?	45

4	Systemic causes of inequality	47
	4.1 Causes inherent in capitalism	47
	4.2 Causes inherent in the state	58
	4.3 Conclusions: Five systemic causes of inequality	61
5	From decreasing to increasing inequality	63
	5.1 Those were the more equal days	63
	5.2 The neoliberal revolution	72
	5.3 But also other ways	78
	5.4 Conclusions: Neoliberal constraints but also new opportunities	80
6	Financialised economies	82
	6.1 Dependent financialisation in the south	83
	6.2 Superior export-orientation in the centre	87
	6.3 Dependent export-orientation and financialisation in the east	91
	6.4 Superior financialisation in the west	92
	6.5 Export-orientation and financialisation in the north	95
	6.6 Conclusions: Diverging economic contexts	97
7	Austerity and individualisation	99
	7.1 The conservatives and their “misérables” in the centre	100
	7.2 The liberals and their obstacles to economic growth in the west	102
	7.3 The constant transitions in the east	104
	7.4 The reliance on the family in the south	106
	7.5 The social democratic hesitancy in the north	110
	7.6 Conclusions: Converging welfare provisions	113
8	Inequalities in the cities	116
	8.1 The polarisation between exclusion and inclusion	116
	8.2 Societal causes of social exclusion	122
	8.3 New societal borders	128
	8.4 The making of the new societal borders	142
	8.5 Conclusions: The new societal borders belong to the neoliberal societal model	146
9	Combatting inequality	149
	9.1 Current EU policies	150
	9.2 The urgent need for societal transformations	151

9.3 Transformative social innovations 152

9.4 Conclusions: Five success criteria 161

10 Concluding summary

164

Bibliography

167

Index

178