

Contents

Acknowledgements .....	vii
Note on the Text .....	viii
List of Illustrations .....	ix
Introduction .....	1

Background

1 History and Terminology .....	11
---------------------------------	----

Contexts: Fictional and Non-Fictional Discourses Concerning the Body Before Richardson

2 Gender and Conduct: The Social Circumscription of the Body .....	33
3 Constructions of the Body in the Fields of Medicine and Religion .....	57
4 The Realization of the Self: Disciplining the Body as Management of the Mind and the Soul .....	85

Text: An Analysis of Samuel Richardson's Clarissa

5 The Conflict Over Clarissa's Body: Exercises of Power and Self-Assertion .....	108
--	-----

Contents

6	Clarissa, Lovelace, and the Struggles of the Self: Two Different Approaches to Life .....	127
7	Lovelace's Illness and Clarissa's Transformation: Confrontations of the Good and the Evil Body .....	150
8	Experiments with Gender, the Libertine Code of Conduct, and the Notion of Friendship .....	173
	Conclusion: Richardson and the Burden of Authorship .....	196
	Bibliography .....	202
	Index .....	217