

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
A Map for Getting Lost	1
1. Autobiographics	16
Self-Representation: Instabilities in Gender, Genre, and Identity	16
Interruptions	41
2. Technologies of Autobiography	65
Figuring (Out) Identity: Representing "Realism"	65
Autobiographics and Naming	86
3. Policing Truth	106
Lying So Near the Truth	106
Autobiography and Its Authorities	120
4. Genders, Bodies, Identities	131
Representing Gender in Medieval Mysticism	131
A Lover's Discourse: Identity/Body Politics in
Self-Representation	148
5. Violence and Self-Representation	163
Rhetorical Violence, Gender, and the Representation of Identity	163
Guerrilla Autobiographics	185
6. A Signature of Lesbian Autobiography	199
Coupling the Signature: Lesbian Representation and the
Discourse of Autobiography	199
Circulations: Posing, Portraits, and Gifts	212

viii Contents

Conclusion	224
Confessional Subjects? Feminist Discourses of Truth and Identity	224
Bibliography	241
Index	251