

Contents

Introduction	ix
Melissa F. Weiner and Antonio Carmona Báez
PART I: THE SPACE OF DECOLONIALITY	1
1 Untold Histories and New Waves of Black Resistance in the Netherlands	3
Mitchell Esajas
2 From the Hollow of the Lion: A Testimony of Revolt at the University of Amsterdam	17
The University of Colour (Amandla Awethu!, Tirza Balk, Inez Blanca van der Scheer, Emma van Meyeren, Alfrida Martis, and Nguyễn Nam Chi)
3 Decoloniality and Black Heritage Tours	31
Jennifer Tosch
4 Colonialism Begets Coloniality: A Case Study of Sint Eustatius, Caribbean Netherlands	39
Teresa E. Leslie
5 InterNational Anti-Racism Group versus the Netherlands' Sesame Street, Twenty-First Century Blackface, and Public Television	55
Gloria Holwerda-Williams
6 Reclaiming Our Voices: The Anti-Black Pete Movement from a Black Woman's Perspective	63
Jessica de Abreu

7	On Agency and Belonging	75
	Quinsy Gario
8	Hymn to the Night, from Fear to Freedom	89
	Teresa Maria Díaz Nerio
PART II: DECOLONIAL DUTCH EPISTEME		95
9	Layers of Emancipation Struggles: Some Reflections on the Dutch Case	97
	Kwame Nimako
10	Catching the Dutch Double Bind	113
	Lianne Leonora
11	Acknowledging the Non-Ordinary Dimensions of Decoloniality: The Case of the Kingdom of the Netherlands	125
	Francio Guadeloupe
12	White Innocence in the Netherlands	137
	Gloria Wekker
13	White Order, Corporate Capital, and Control of Mobility in the Netherlands	149
	Egbert Alejandro Martina and Patricia Schor
14	“Activism” and (the Afterlives of) Dutch Colonialism	161
	Guno Jones
15	Decoloniality of Memory and Anti-Black Racism	175
	Artwell Cain
16	Decolonizing the Islamic Other: The Changed Conditions of Critical Thinking	185
	Halleh Ghorashi
Conclusion: Smashing the Pillars		197
	Melissa F. Weiner and Antonio Carmona Báez
Bibliography		211
Index		235
About the Contributors		245