

Nineteenth-Century Settler Emigration in British Literature and Art

Fariha Shaikh

EDINBURGH
University Press

Contents

List of Illustrations	vi
Acknowledgements	vii
Series Editor's Preface	ix
Introduction	1
1. Printed Emigrants' Letters: Networks of Affect and Authenticity	31
2. Emigrant Shipboard Newspapers: Provisional Settlement at Sea	63
3. Fragmentary Aesthetics: Susanna Moodie and Catharine Parr Traill in the Canadian Bush	95
4. Emigration Paintings: Visual Texts and Mobility	130
5. Emigration Aesthetics: Elizabeth Gaskell, Charles Dickens and Catherine Helen Spence	161
Conclusion: Structures of Mobility	191
Bibliography	196
Index	235