

Contents

Introduction	1
I. History
1. Entextualising Reality: The Poetics of Historiography	17
2. Accommodating the Past: The Orcadian Tradition	29
2.1. The Historical Value of Folklore	29
2.2. Medieval Historiography and Orkneyinga Saga	42
2.3. Two Twentieth-Century Histories of Orkney	54
3. A Portrayal of Orkney: An Orkney Tapestry as History Book	64
4. Imagining History: Brown's Exploration of Historical Continuity	81
4.1. Historical Change and Narrative Fragmentation	83
4.2. Toward a Mythic Fulfilment of History	100
II. Myth
1. Beyond History: The Poetics of Myth-Making	119
2. Identifying the People: The Construction of the Community Myth	138
2.1. The Short Stories: Cycles of Love and Faith	142
2.2. Greenvoe : Fall and Rise of an Island Community	170
3. The Illumination of Individual Lives: Edwin Muir's An Autobiography and the Plight of Homing Ghosts	186
III. Fable
1. Transcending the Ordinary: The Poetics of Faith	205
1.1. The Spiritual Value of Agriculture	205
1.2. Magnus and Christian Concepts of History and Time	216
1.3. A Dedicated People: Ritual, Identity and Cosmic Coherence	232
2. Exemplifying the Truth: Time in a Red Coat and Allegory	240
3. Merely the Helmsman: Brown as Storyteller and the Limits of Narrative	258
Conclusion	269
Bibliography	275