

Contents

1	Introduction: The Police, a Key Actor in Human Rights Protection	1
	Ralf Alleweldt and Guido Fickenscher
2	Police and Human Rights: Fundamental Questions	7
	Ralph Crawshaw
3	The Police and the Prohibition of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment	21
	Inna G. Garanina
4	The Police and the Right to Life	43
	Robert Esser
5	Command Responsibility and the Use of Force by the Police	61
	Anja Bienert
6	Effective Investigation of Alleged Police Human Rights Abuse: Combating Impunity	83
	Graham Smith
7	The Deprivation of Liberty by the Police. International Parameters and the Jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights	103
	Francesc Guillén Lasierra
8	Police Powers and Criminal Investigations	125
	Jim Murdoch
9	Surveillance Powers of the Police and the Protection of Personal Data	155
	Dieter Kugelmann and Christina Kosin

10	The Protection Against Crime as a Human Right: Positive Obligations of the Police	181
	Dimitris Xenos
11	The Police and the Human Right to Peaceful Assembly	217
	Kai Siegert
12	United Nations Police Missions and Human Rights	245
	Judith Thorn
13	Police Training and International Human Rights Standards	279
	Walter Suntinger
14	The European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Its Work with the Police	305
	Wolfgang S. Heinz
15	The Police and the Subcommittee on Prevention of Torture of the United Nations. National Preventive Mechanisms	321
	Aneta Stanchevska	