

---

---

Contents

---

---

PART I	CONVENTIONAL MYTHS	1
	Introduction: American Exceptionalism, Literary History and the 1920s	3
1	Intellectuals and the <sup>Yel? Coll? &amp; NCSG @ 10/15/07</sup> Contemprible Masses: H.L. Mencken and Irving Babbitt	18
2	American Modernism, Aesthetics and Man-made Truths: Willa Cather and John Dos Passos	44
PART II	REEVALUATING TWENTIES CULTURE	77
3	Limited Prosperity and Republican Ascension: The Conjunctural Coordinates of Twenties Culture	79
X 4	Personality, Mass Culture and Class: The Novels of Harry Leon Wilson and Theodore Dreiser	109
5	Progressive Education, Essentialism and Ethnicity: Anzia Yezierska and Ludwig Lewisohn	140
6	Primitive Desires and the Desire for the Primitive: DuBose Heyward and Nella Larsen	170
	Conclusion: The New American Studies and the 1920s	197
	Notes	202
	Index	215