

Contents

Editorial	7
I Inter-religious and non-religious dialogue in education
Pekka Metso
Raising a Christian or an Orthodox Christian? Parents' experience of their ecumenical reality and minority status in the religious upbringing of Finnish Orthodox children and youth	13
Arniika Kuusisto, Jörgen Straarup, Olga Schihalejev, Arto Kallioniemi & Linda Vikdahl
Theoretical and methodological perspectives to studying religious and cultural diversity in Finnish, Swedish and Estonian comprehensive schools	31
Imelda Pui-hing Lam
Interreligious education in Catholic schools in Hong Kong. Promoting human values in risk of assimilation by sovereign transition	47
Elyssa Wortzman
The role of mindful art-making in Jewish dialogical spiritual education	61
II Socio-cultural issues on pluralism and education
Martin Ubani
Toward democratic practices in RE? A teaching experiment in Finnish classrooms	81
Mehmet Şanver & Özgür Erakkuş
Theology students' views about competence on multicultural and multi-faith issues	95

Seth Asare-Danso

Church and state in educational dialogue.

A historical study of the presbyterian church of Ghana 111

III The educator meets religions

Hilkka Luttinen & Ulla Härkönen

Early childhood educational thinking in a Christian day-care centre 129

Aina Hammer & Nanna Paaske

Religious minorities as bridge builders in diverse classrooms 141

Saila Kujanpää

Islamic education in the non-confessional frame.

Challenges of Islamic religious education in the Finnish context 157

Martin Ubani

What kind of educational reflections do RE student teachers have during their pedagogical studies?

A dialogical perspective on a case study 173

IV New developments in religious education

Laima Geikina

Religious competence and the new national curriculum of Latvia.

Current developments 189

Vasiliki Mitropoulou & Smaragda Faridou

High school students' views on the use of digital learning objects in religious education 201

Risto Aikonen

A teacher as a user of technological devices and social media

applications in religious education 219