

Table of Contents

Preface	7
Paul Goetsch
The Declaration of Independence	11
Paul Goetsch
The Fourth of July and Its Role in American Literature	33
Gerd Humm
The Rhetoric of Continuity in Early Boston Orations	57
Bernd Engler
From Providential to Secular Rhetoric: Fourth of July Poetry, 1776-1876.....	85
Wolfgang Hochbruck
Edward Everett's Union Rhetoric	113
Kurt Müller
Anti-Slavery Rhetoric on the Fourth of July: William Lloyd Garrison.....	121
Bernard W. Bell
The African-American Jeremiad and Frederick Douglass' Fourth of July 1852 Speech	139
Wolfgang Hochbruck
'I Ask for Justice': Native American Fourth of July Orations	155

6 Table of Contents

Manfred Pütz

Dissenting Voices of Consent:
Margaret Fuller and Ralph Waldo Emerson
on the Fourth of July 167

Paul Goetsch

Thoreau and the Fourth of July 185

Elmar Schenkel

Walt Whitman and Fourth of July Rhetoric 205

Kurt Müller

Herman Melville's Narratives of Facts
and the Fourth of July 219

Gerd Hum

A "Noisy Carnival":
Parodies and Burlesques of Fourth of July Rhetoric 239

Appendix

A. The Declaration of Independence 259
B. Jonathan Loring Austin 264
C. Fourth of July Poetry 275
D. John W. Quinney 282
E. Artemus Ward 287

Select Bibliography 291

List of Contributors 301

Index 303