Contents

Introduction 1

1. Career Religious 7
   - Pre-Conquest Biography: Methodologies 8
   - Tradition and Innovation 11
   - Bede's Embedded Lives 15
   - Diverse Forms, Continuing Ideals 17
   - New Directions 19
   - Private Lives and Relationships 24
   - Garnier's Life of Thomas Becket: A Literary Approach 28
   - 'Reinventing' Autobiography 31
     - Guibert's Monodies 32
     - Abelard's Calamities 36
     - Heloise and the 'Personal Letters' 38
     - Hildegard of Bingen's (Auto)Biography 41

2. Holy Women 46
   - Life-writing and Friendship: Goscelin of St. Bertin and Eve of Wilton 47
   - Goscelin's Edith: Eve Redux? 53
   - Life Friendships: Christina of Markyate 56
   - Heterospirituality, circa 1200: The Life of Saint Gilbert of Sempringham 64
   - The Strange Case of Margery Kempe 69

3. Kings and a Marshal 80
   - Asser's Life of King Alfred 81
   - The Last Anglo-Saxon King: History and Hagiography 85
   - The Norman Conquest: Winners and Losers 91
     - William of Normandy: A Peaceable Conqueror 91
     - Harold: The Untold Story 93
   - Bio-History 95
   - Regnal Biography 103
   - Blacman's Henry VI: The Private Life of a King 104
   - William Marshal, Advisor to Kings 108

Winstead, Karen A.
The Oxford history of life-writing

digitalisiert durch:
IDS Luzern

4. Authors and Poets 114
Early Literary Biography 114
Troubadour Vidas and Razos 117
Historian Autobiographers 119
Francesco Petrarch and Christine de Pizan 121
Autobiographical Impulses in Middle English Texts 128
'Master Chaucer' and the Anti-autobiographical Prologue 131
Hoccleve's Runaway Prologues 134
Autobiographical Hybrids and Interpolations 138
The Testaments of Thomas Usk and John Lydgate 138
Towards 'Literary (Auto)Biography' 141

5. Polemical Anthologies 143
Defining Sainthood 143
On the Nature of Women 146
Of Princes and Fortune 154

6. Fictional Lives 159
Beowulf: Writing Life in Old English Poetry 160
Geoffrey of Monmouth's Merlin and the Life of the Mind 166
Hagiographical Fictions 169

Notes 177
Bibliography 215
Index 237