

Contents

List of Figures .....	vii
Acknowledgements .....	viii
Abbreviations Used .....	ix
I Introduction .....	1
II Metaphorized Cosmology and Literature .....	25
II.1 Astroculture, Anthropicity, and Cosmology .....	26
II.2 Cosmology as Metaphor .....	40
II.3 Nonconceptuality and Literature .....	52
II.4 Metaphorized Cosmology as a Transgressional Trope .....	60
III The Cosmopoetics of the Novel .....	69
III.1 From Metaphorized Cosmology towards a Cosmopoetics .....	72
III.2 Epistemology and the Cosmopoetic Novel .....	89
III.3 Ontology and the Cosmopoetic Novel .....	100
III.4 Anthropology and the Cosmopoetic Novel .....	110
IV Metaphorized Cosmology in English Literary History .....	117
IV.1 Epic between Ptolemaism and Copernicanism .....	122
IV.2 The Emergence of the Novel in the Newtonian World .....	170
IV.3 The Novel in the Herschelian Universe .....	201
V Metaphorized Cosmology in the Contemporary Novel .....	253
V.1 The World in the Novel: Cosmopoetics and Epistemology .....	261
V.1.1 Characterization .....	269
V.1.2 Chronotope .....	285
V.1.3 Perspective .....	318
V.2 The Novel as World: Cosmopoetics and Ontology .....	339
V.2.1 Text-as-World .....	346
V.2.2 Meaning-making .....	355
V.2.3 Inter-subjectivity .....	365
V.3 The Novel in the World: Cosmopoetics and Anthropology .....	390
VI Cosmopoetics in the Contemporary Novel .....	425
Works Cited .....	444
Index .....	476