

Contents

HANS-JÜRGEN GRABBE Preface	ix
GESA MACKENTHUN Encountering Colonialism: A Transnational View of 'Colonial America'	1
WINFRIED HERGET Anders als der Rest der Welt: Die Puritaner in der amerikanischen Wildnis	29
MARY BETH NORTON Colonial Encounters in the Visible and Invisible Worlds: The Salem Witchcraft Crisis of 1692 in the Context of the Maine Indian Wars	51
KAREN ORDAHL KUPPERMAN Controlling Nature and Colonial Projects in Early America	69
DAVID J. WEBER Writers, Readers, and the Meaning of the Spanish Frontier in North America	89
European Theories of Civilization and Native American Identity in the Colonial and Early National Periods
DIETER SCHULZ Roger Williams's A Key into the Language of America (1643): Radical Calvinism, Allegory, and the Question of Puritan-Indian Relations	109

THOMAS CLARK Civilization, Disease, and Political Order: Benjamin Rush's "Enquiry into the Natural History of Medicine among the Indians of North-America"	125
DIETMAR SCHLOSS Joel Barlow's Vision of Columbus (1787) and the Discovery of the Ethnic	139
JÖRG THOMAS RICHTER Exemplary American: Logan, the Mingo Chief, in Jefferson, Neal, and Doddridge	157
JULES ZANGER William Cullen Bryant's "The Indian Spring": A Case of Double Vision	173
BERND KLÄHN Leviathan in Paradise: The Triangular Colonial Matrix of American (Pre-)Romanticism	185
Representations of Colonial Encounters in Early American Music, Visual Arts, and Material Culture
BETTINA FRIEDL Puritan Dress Code and the Matter of Fashion	197
ALEXANDER MEIER-DÖRZENBACH Decorating the "Citty vpon a Hill": Puritan Art and Artifacts	221
BERND HERZOGENRATH Join, or Die! The Myth of Wholeness and Visual Strategies of Dismemberment in Early American Political Cartoons	243
NASSIM BALESTRINI The Mythical Pocahontas on the American Stage: Musical Characterization in James Nelson Barker's and John Bray's The Indian Princess; or, La Belle Sauvage (1808)	263

PAUL NEUBAUER Benjamin West and American Portraits of the Colonial	283
Displacement, Transculturation, and Identity in Colonial America and the Early Republic
ANGELIKA DAUM Mary Rowlandson in Indian Country, in Boston, and in London	297
BIRGIT WETZEL-SAHM A Female Peregrine's Negotiations for a Space as Businesswoman in Colonial New England: Sarah Kemble Knight's Journey from Boston to New York (1704–05).....	309
EVA BOESENBERG Writing the Mobile Self: Gender, Culture, and Voice in The Journal of Madam Knight	325
FABIENNE C. QUENNET “Unredeemed Captives”: American Identity and Counteridentity Formation	343
KARSTEN KUMMER “Plain Truth” or “ Verschiedene Wahrheiten? ” German-American Reactions to Benjamin Franklin's 'Association' for Pennsylvania's Self-Defense	359
CARMEN BIRKLE Familiarizing the Unfamiliar: Imagined Communities in James Nelson Barker's The Indian Princess; or, La Belle Sauvage (1808)	373
INGMAR PROBST Travelling between the Cultures? Questions of Identity in Travelogues of Fur Traders from New England and New York (1760–1815)	385
List of Contributors	401