

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Mary O'Dowd and June Purvis
2	Girls at Work in the Middle Ages	13
	Sophie Brouquet
3	From 'Young Women' to 'Female Adolescents': Dutch Advice Literature during the Long Nineteenth Century	33
	Marja van Tilburg
4	Adolescent Girlhood in Eighteenth-Century Ireland	53
	Mary O'Dowd
5	Young Women, Textile Labour, and Marriage in Europe and China around 1800	75
	Ann Waltner and Mary Jo Maynes
6	The Education of European and Chinese Girls at Home in the Nineteenth Century	103
	Fang Qin and Emily Bruce

7	'[T]he Children Bobbed Like Corks on the Tide of Adult Life': The Political Education of the Pankhurst Girls in Late Victorian England	123
	June Purvis
8	Girls as Members of an Educated Elite: The Bulgarian Case, c. 1850–1950	143
	Georgeta Nazarska
9	Did the Bengali Woman Have a Girlhood? A Study of Colonialism, Education, and the Evolution of the Girl Child in Nineteenth-Century Bengal	163
	Asha Islam Nayeem
10	The 'Social Processing Chamber' of Gender: Australian Second-Wave Feminist Perspectives on Girls' Socialisation	179
	Isabelle Barrett Meyering
11	'And Sweet Girl-Graduates'? From Girl to Woman Through Higher Education	201
	Alison Mackinnon
12	The 'Girl-Hawking War' in Colonial Lagos	225
	Oluwakemi A. Adesina
13	Biopolitics of Dai Girls: Work, Marriage, and a Desirable Lifestyle	237
	Yan Hu
	Index	255