

A 1999
11981

The New Regionalism in Western Europe

Territorial Restructuring and Political Change

Michael Keating

*Professor of Political Science
University of Western Ontario Canada*

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK · Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

---

Figures	viii
Preface and Acknowledgements	ix
1. Territory and Politics	1
In search of territory	1
The creation of place	7
Regions – the elusive space	9
2. Regions and State-building in Western Europe	16
The formation of the nation-state	16
State and nation-building	19
The state and territorial oppositions	22
The territorial state	35
3. Regions in the Welfare State	39
The postwar settlement	39
Regions and politics	43
The politics of regional development	47
Regions from the bottom-up	52
The move to regional government	55
Establishing regional government	59
Italy	61
France	62
The United Kingdom	65
Spain	67
Belgium	70
The modernization of regions	71

4. The New Regionalism	72
The changing context	72
The construction of regions	79
Territorial space	79
Functional space	80
Regional culture	83
Regional identity	85
Regions, parties and voting	95
Social space	101
The politics of regionalism	104
The invention of regions	109
5. Regional Government	112
Models of regional government	112
Constitutional status	116
Functions	117
Finance	120
Bureaucracy	122
Political capacity	123
Intergovernmental Relations	124
Regions and networks of power	127
6. The Political Economy of Regionalism	136
Economic restructuring	136
Regional development policies. The new paradigm	140
The construction of a development model	143
Development coalitions	144
Territory	144
Institutions	145
Leadership	148
Social composition	149
Culture	152
External linkages	156
Development strategies	157
7. Regions in an Integrated Europe	161
Regionalism and Europe	161
Formulating an interest	165
Channels of access	166

The Commission and the regions	172
Inter-regional co-operation	177
8. Conclusion	184
Do regions matter?	184
The future	186
The regional state	187
Appendix 1 Allocation of Functions to Regional Governments	190
Appendix 2 Regions in Six Countries	197
Bibliography	202
Index	231