

Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| Preface | xvii |
| Introduction | 1 |
| PART ONE Economic and Psychological Background | |
| 1. Economic Analysis of Law: An Overview | 7 |
| A. Introduction | 7 |
| B. Positive Economics | 8 |
| C. Normative Economics | 13 |
| D. Conclusion | 18 |
| 2. Behavioral Studies | 19 |
| A. An Overview | 19 |
| 1. History, Methodology, and Interdisciplinary Impact | 19 |
| 2. Dual-Process Theories | 21 |
| 3. Theories of Heuristics and Biases | 23 |
| 4. Cognitive Biases versus Fast-and-Frugal Heuristics | 25 |
| 5. Typology of Phenomena and Structure of the Chapter | 27 |
| B. Probability Assessments and Related Issues | 28 |
| 1. Conjunction and Disjunction Fallacies | 28 |
| 2. Base-Rate Neglect | 30 |
| 3. Inverse Fallacy | 32 |
| 4. Insensitivity to Sample Size and Related Phenomena | 32 |
| 5. Certainty Effect | 34 |
| 6. Availability | 34 |
| 7. Subadditivity | 37 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 8. Hindsight Bias | 38 |
| 9. Ambiguity Aversion | 39 |
| C. Prospect Theory and Related Issues | 42 |
| 1. General | 42 |
| 2. Loss Aversion and Emotions | 44 |
| 3. Reference-Dependence | 45 |
| 4. Framing Effects | 46 |
| 5. Status Quo and Omission Biases | 48 |
| 6. Endowment Effect | 50 |
| (a) Significance and Scope | 50 |
| (b) Causes and Explanations | 53 |
| 7. Sunk Costs and Escalation of Commitment | 56 |
| D. Egocentrism and Motivated Reasoning | 58 |
| 1. General | 58 |
| 2. Motivated Reasoning and Confirmation Bias | 58 |
| 3. Overoptimism and the Better-than-Average Effect | 61 |
| 4. Overconfidence | 64 |
| 5. Naïve Realism and False-Consensus Effect | 66 |
| 6. Fundamental Attribution Error | 68 |
| 7. Planning Fallacy | 69 |
| 8. Illusion of Control | 71 |
| 9. Behavioral Ethics | 72 |
| E. Reference-Dependence and Order Effects | 76 |
| 1. General | 76 |
| 2. Contrast and Assimilation Effects | 77 |
| 3. Anchoring and Adjustment | 79 |
| 4. Order Effects: Primacy and Recency | 82 |
| 5. Compromise and Attraction Effects | 83 |
| 6. Diminishing Sensitivity | 85 |
| F. Procrastination, Myopia, and Bounded Willpower | 87 |
| 1. Procrastination | 87 |
| 2. Myopia and Bounded Willpower | 88 |
| G. Moral Judgment and Human Motivation | 93 |
| 1. General | 93 |
| 2. Deontology versus Consequentialism | 94 |
| (a) Normative Ethics | 94 |
| (b) Behavioral Studies | 97 |
| 3. Fairness and Social Justice | 101 |
| (a) General | 101 |
| (b) Substantive Fairness | 102 |
| (c) Procedural Fairness | 104 |
| (d) Belief in a Just World | 106 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 4. Prosocial Behavior and Altruism | 106 |
| (a) Helping Others | 106 |
| (b) Cooperation | 109 |
| H. Cross-Phenomenal Factors | 110 |
| 1. Individual Differences | 111 |
| 2. Expertise | 114 |
| 3. Deciding for Others | 117 |
| 4. Group Decision-Making and Advice-Taking | 120 |
| 5. Cultural Differences | 124 |
| 6. Debiasing | 127 |
| (a) Preliminary Comments | 127 |
| (b) Technological Strategies | 128 |
| (c) Motivational Strategies: Incentives and Accountability | 129 |
| (d) Cognitive Strategies | 134 |
| I. Concluding Remarks | 138 |

PART TWO Behavioral Law and Economics: A Synopsis

| | |
|--|-----|
| 3. An Overview of Behavioral Law and Economics | 141 |
| A. Introduction | 141 |
| B. History | 141 |
| C. Methodology | 145 |
| D. Challenges | 150 |
| E. Conclusion | 156 |
| 4. Normative Implications | 157 |
| A. Introduction | 157 |
| B. Behavioral Findings and Normative Theories | 158 |
| C. Prevailing Moral Judgments and the Law | 161 |
| D. Behaviorally Informed Lawmaking | 162 |
| 1. General | 162 |
| 2. Ends | 163 |
| (a) Introduction | 163 |
| (b) Preventing Exploitation | 163 |
| (c) Legal Paternalism | 165 |
| 3. Means | 171 |
| (a) Introduction | 171 |
| (b) Disclosure Duties | 171 |
| (c) Nudges and Shoves | 177 |
| E. Conclusion | 185 |
| 5. Behavioral Insights and Basic Features of the Law | 187 |
| A. Introduction | 187 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| B. Law, Reference-Dependence, and Loss Aversion | 189 |
| 1. Private Law: Tort versus Unjust Enrichment | 189 |
| 2. Human Rights: Civil and Political versus Social and Economic | 190 |
| 3. Additional Examples | 191 |
| C. Evolutionary Theories | 192 |
| D. Cognitive Psychology, Commonsense Morality, and the Law | 194 |
| E. A Normative Perspective | 195 |
| F. Conclusion | 197 |

PART THREE Private and Commercial Law

| | |
|--|------------|
| 6. Property Law | 201 |
| A. Introduction | 201 |
| B. Ownership and Possession | 202 |
| 1. Psychological Ownership | 203 |
| 2. Determining Ownership | 204 |
| 3. Framing Ownership | 207 |
| 4. Ownership, Possession, and the Endowment Effect | 209 |
| C. Constitutional Property Law | 213 |
| 1. Takings versus Givings | 213 |
| 2. Physical versus Nonphysical Taking | 215 |
| 3. Scope and Mode of Compensation | 218 |
| 4. Homes versus Other Property | 219 |
| D. Intellectual Property | 222 |
| 1. General | 222 |
| 2. The Innovation Lottery | 224 |
| 3. Endowment and Creativity Effects | 226 |
| 4. Sequential Innovations | 227 |
| 5. Hindsight Bias | 228 |
| E. Protecting Property Rights: Property Rules versus Liability Rules | 229 |
| F. Conclusion | 234 |
| 7. Contract Law | 237 |
| A. Introduction | 237 |
| B. Trust, Promise, and Contract | 239 |
| 1. General | 239 |
| 2. Standard-Form Contracts | 243 |
| C. Pre-contractual Negotiations | 245 |
| 1. General | 245 |
| 2. The Role of Default Rules and Other Reference Points | 247 |
| D. Contract Formation | 252 |
| E. Interpretation and Supplementation | 256 |
| F. Performance | 258 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| G. Legal Remedies for Breach of Contract | 262 |
| 1. Analytical and Doctrinal Background | 262 |
| 2. The Four Interests as Reference Points | 264 |
| 3. Expectation Damages versus Specific Performance | 266 |
| 4. Disgorgement | 270 |
| 5. Intentions and Motivations | 272 |
| H. Agreed Remedies: Liquidated Damages | 273 |
| 1. A Puzzling Doctrine | 273 |
| 2. Behavioral Insights | 276 |
| 3. Liquidated Damages and the Decision to Breach | 278 |
| I. Conclusion | 279 |
| 8. Consumer Contracts | 281 |
| A. Introduction | 281 |
| B. Marketing Techniques | 283 |
| 1. General | 283 |
| 2. Information Presentation | 284 |
| 3. Limited Availability | 287 |
| 4. Low-Ball and Bait-and-Switch Techniques | 290 |
| 5. Lenient Return Policies | 290 |
| C. Pricing | 292 |
| 1. General | 292 |
| 2. Price Framing | 294 |
| 3. Multidimensional and Complex Pricing | 297 |
| 4. Deferred and Contingent Payments | 299 |
| 5. Odd Pricing | 299 |
| D. Non-salient Contract Clauses | 301 |
| E. Post-contracting Behavior | 305 |
| F. Market Solutions | 306 |
| 1. General | 306 |
| 2. Competition | 308 |
| 3. Reputation | 310 |
| 4. Conclusion | 312 |
| G. Legal Solutions | 313 |
| 1. General | 313 |
| 2. Disclosure | 314 |
| 3. Mandatory Regulation | 318 |
| H. Conclusion | 323 |
| 9. Tort Law | 325 |
| A. Introduction | 325 |
| B. Economic Analysis of Tort Law: An Overview | 326 |

| | |
|--|-------------------|
| C. Behavioral Analysis: Liability Regimes | 329 |
| 1. Boundedly Rational Agents | 330 |
| 2. Boundedly Rational Adjudicators | 336 |
| (a) Negligence versus Strict Liability and the Hindsight Bias | 336 |
| (b) Contributory Negligence versus Comparative Negligence and Anchoring | 340 |
| D. Behavioral Analysis: Damages | 341 |
| 1. Framing the Question | 342 |
| 2. Hedonic Damages | 343 |
| E. Product Liability | 348 |
| 1. Defective Design | 349 |
| 2. Warnings | 351 |
| F. Conclusion | 354 |
| 10. Commercial Law: Corporate Law, Securities Regulation, and Antitrust | 355 |
| A. Introduction | 355 |
| B. Firms, Markets, and Rational Choice | 356 |
| 1. The Efficient Market Hypothesis | 356 |
| 2. Behavioral Corporate Finance | 357 |
| C. Corporate Law | 358 |
| 1. General | 358 |
| 2. Hindsight Bias and the Business Judgment Rule | 359 |
| 3. Behavioral Corporate Governance | 360 |
| (a) Overconfident CEOs | 362 |
| (b) Passive Boards | 364 |
| (c) Legal Responses | 366 |
| D. Securities Regulation | 370 |
| 1. General | 370 |
| 2. Securities Fraud | 371 |
| 3. Retail Investors | 373 |
| E. Antitrust Law | 380 |
| 1. General | 380 |
| 2. Boundedly Rational Consumers | 381 |
| 3. Boundedly Rational Firms | 383 |
| 4. Concluding Remarks and Reply to Critics | 387 |
| F. Conclusion | 388 |
| | |
| PART FOUR | Public Law |
| | |
| 11. Administrative, Constitutional, and International Law | 393 |
| A. Introduction | 393 |
| B. Institutions | 395 |
| 1. Public Choice Theory and Cognitive Psychology | 395 |
| (a) General | 395 |
| (b) Designing Governmental Institutions | 396 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 2. Rule-Making | 399 |
| (a) Judicial versus Legislative Rule-Making | 399 |
| (b) Temporary Legislation | 402 |
| 3. Concluding Remarks | 404 |
| C. Citizens | 405 |
| 1. General | 405 |
| 2. Citizens' Judgments and Choices | 405 |
| 3. Governmental Manipulation of Citizens' Heuristics and Biases | 408 |
| D. Human Rights | 409 |
| 1. Freedom of Speech | 410 |
| (a) Theoretical and Doctrinal Background | 410 |
| (b) Behavioral Analysis | 412 |
| 2. The Fight against Terrorism | 414 |
| 3. Affirmative Action | 419 |
| 4. Concluding Remarks | 422 |
| E. International Law | 423 |
| 1. Challenges | 423 |
| 2. Prospects | 425 |
| F. Conclusion | 430 |
| 12. Criminal Law and Enforcement | 433 |
| A. Introduction | 433 |
| B. Efficient Crime Control | 434 |
| C. Do People Want Efficient Crime Control Policies? | 436 |
| 1. Punishment and the Probability of Detection | 436 |
| 2. Punishment and the Risk of Future Offending | 438 |
| 3. Punishment Judgments and Policy Design | 438 |
| 4. Case in Point: The Law of Criminal Attempts | 440 |
| D. Deterrence Theory and Behavioral Analysis | 443 |
| 1. Attitudes toward Risk | 444 |
| 2. Perceptions of the Risk of Punishment | 446 |
| (a) Overoptimism | 446 |
| (b) Availability | 446 |
| (c) Prediction and Postdiction | 448 |
| (d) Probability Estimates and Repeat Behavior | 449 |
| 3. Perceptions of Sanctions | 451 |
| (a) The Hedonic Dimensions of Punishment | 451 |
| (b) Formal Sanctions and Internal Motivations | 454 |
| E. Behavioral Ethics—Predicting When Crime Is More Likely | 455 |
| 1. Factual Ambiguity | 456 |
| 2. Legal Ambiguity | 457 |
| 3. Driving Forces | 458 |
| F. Punishing Recidivists | 461 |
| G. Conclusion | 463 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 13. Tax Law and Redistribution | 465 |
| A. Introduction | 465 |
| B. Tax Design | 467 |
| 1. General | 467 |
| 2. Budget Balance | 468 |
| 3. The Political Salience of Taxes | 470 |
| 4. Tax Exemptions versus Spending | 472 |
| C. Taxpayers' Behavior | 474 |
| 1. Economic Decision-Making | 474 |
| 2. Tax Compliance | 476 |
| 3. Challenging Taxes | 478 |
| 4. The Normative Debate | 478 |
| D. Behavioral Insights and Redistribution | 480 |
| 1. General | 480 |
| 2. Judgments of Progressivity | 481 |
| 3. Scarcity | 483 |
| 4. Wealth and Subjective Well-Being | 485 |
| 5. Methods and Objects of Redistribution | 488 |
| E. Modifying Behavior through Taxes | 490 |
| F. Conclusion | 492 |

PART FIVE The Legal Process

| | |
|---|------------|
| 14. Litigants' Behavior | 495 |
| A. Introduction | 495 |
| B. Standard Economic Analysis of Litigation and Settlement | 496 |
| C. Behavioral Impediments to Settlement | 497 |
| 1. General | 497 |
| 2. Information, Self-Serving Bias, and Overoptimism | 497 |
| 3. "Irrational" Motives | 500 |
| 4. Biases Stemming from the Adversarial Nature of Litigation | 501 |
| 5. Reference-Dependence in Assessing Settlement Offers | 502 |
| 6. Framing Litigation Outcomes and Risk Attitude | 503 |
| 7. Conclusion | 505 |
| D. Behavioral Factors Encouraging Settlement: Anticipated Regret and Loss Aversion | 505 |
| E. Alternative Dispute Resolution | 507 |
| F. Attorneys and Clients | 509 |
| 1. General | 509 |
| 2. Fee Arrangements | 510 |
| 3. Lawyers' Decision-Making | 512 |
| 4. Lawyers' Motivation | 516 |
| G. A Note on Plea Bargains | 519 |
| H. Conclusion | 523 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| 15. Judicial Decision-Making | 525 |
| A. Introduction | 525 |
| B. The Story Model and Coherence-Based Reasoning | 528 |
| C. Judicial Decision-Makers' Heuristics and Biases | 532 |
| 1. Context Dependence | 532 |
| 2. Hindsight Bias | 535 |
| 3. Omission Bias and Related Phenomena | 537 |
| 4. Converting Qualitative into Quantitative Judgments and the Anchoring Effect | 538 |
| 5. Conclusion | 543 |
| D. Inadmissible Evidence and Other Irrelevant Information | 545 |
| 1. The Challenge | 545 |
| 2. Jury Instructions and Other Remedies | 548 |
| E. Priming and Prejudice | 550 |
| F. Judicial Decision-Making: Moral Judgments | 554 |
| G. Rules versus Standards: Certainty and Predictability | 556 |
| H. Group Decision-Making | 559 |
| I. Judges versus Laypersons | 561 |
| J. A General Assessment of Behavioral Research of Judicial Decision-Making | 563 |
| | |
| 16. Evidence Law | 567 |
| A. Introduction | 567 |
| B. Types of Evidence and Cognitive Biases | 568 |
| 1. Eyewitnesses | 568 |
| (a) Eyewitness Testimony | 568 |
| (b) Fact-Finders' Assessment of Eyewitness Testimonies | 572 |
| (c) Policy Implications | 574 |
| 2. Probabilistic Evidence | 576 |
| (a) The Wells Effect | 577 |
| (b) Base-Rate Neglect | 579 |
| (c) Inverse Fallacy | 581 |
| 3. Circumstantial Evidence: The Anti-inference Bias | 582 |
| 4. Expert Testimonies | 585 |
| 5. Conclusion | 587 |
| C. Burden of Proof | 587 |
| 1. Normative and Doctrinal Background | 587 |
| 2. Burden of Proof and the Story Model | 589 |
| 3. Burden of Proof: A Tiebreaker or a Reference Point? | 591 |
| 4. Loss Aversion, Omission Bias, and the Burden of Proof in Civil Litigation | 593 |
| (a) Who Should Bear the Burden? | 593 |
| (b) What Is the Actual Standard of Proof? | 594 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 5. Protected Values, Taboo Trade-Offs, and the Burden of Proof in Criminal Litigation | 595 |
| D. The Upside of Bounded Rationality | 598 |
| E. Conclusion | 599 |
| | |
| Index | 601 |