

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations vii
List of Contributors xiii
Acknowledgments xviii

Introduction 1

SECTION ONE COLOR AND SOLIDARITY 11

- 1 Color as Theme in the Ebony Fashion Fair 13
Joy L. Bivins
- 2 Purity and Parity: The White Dress of the Suffrage Movement in Early Twentieth-Century Britain 21
Kimberly Wahl
- 3 Birds of the Same “Color” Flock Together: Color as Expression of Identity and Solidarity in Aso-Ebi Cloth of the Yoruba 35
Margaret Olugbemisola Areo and Adebowale Biodun Areo
- 4 Contradictory Colors: Tricolor in Vichy France’s Fashion Culture 47
Emmanuelle Dirix

SECTION TWO COLOR AND POWER 57

- 5 Dress and Color at the Thai Court 59

- 7 Lord Boston's Court Uniform: A Story of Color, Politics, and the Psychology of Belonging 81

Deirdre Murphy

- 8 Yellow is the New Red, or Clothing the Recession and How the Shade of Shame Became Chic 95

Jonathan Faiers

SECTION THREE COLOR AND INNOVATION 107

- 9 Color before Technicolor: Colorized Fashion Films of the Silent Era 109

Michelle Tolini Finamore

- 10 Color as Concept: From International Klein Blue to Viktor & Rolf's "Bluescreen" 117

Michal Lynn Shumate

- 11 Tainted Love: Oscar Wilde's Toxic Green Carnation, Queerness, and Chromophobia 127

Alison Matthews David

- 12 Starlit Skies Blue versus Durindone Blue 143

Anna Buruma

SECTION FOUR COLOR AND DESIRE 153

- 13 Rough Wolves in the Sheepcote: The Meanings of Fashionable Color, 1900–1914 155

Clare Rose

- 14 "Le Noir Étant la Dominante de Notre Véture ...": The Many Meanings of the Color Black in Postwar Paris 169

Beatrice Behlen

- 15 British Scarlet Broadcloth, the Perfect Red in Eastern Africa, c.1820–1885 187

Sarah Fee