

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Foreign Queens, Abusive Sovereignty, and Political Theory in the Past and the Present	1
2	Katherine of Aragon's Fragmented Identity in Henry VIII	61
3	The Friend, the Enemy, the Wife, and the Guest: Conditional and Unconditional Hospitality in The Winter's Tale	111
4	Strange Bedfellows: Friend, Enemy, and the Commonwealth in Titus Andronicus	159
5	Margaret and the Ban: Resistances to Sovereign Authority in Henry VI 1, 2, & 3 and Richard III	209
	Index	261