

Contents

1	Why Study Friendships and Diversity? Orientations and Introduction to the Study	1
	Introduction	1
	An Emergent Sociology of Friendship	4
	Friendship as a Marginalised Sociological Concept?	4
	An Established Sociology of Friendship?	9
	Approaching Diverse Friendships: Conceptual Orientations and Methodological Challenges	16
	The Pilot Study	16
	The Main Project	18
	How the Book Is Organised	20
	Conclusion	22
	References	23
2	Encounter, Conviviality and the City: New Directions in Theorising Interaction Across Difference	29
	Introduction	29
	Multiculture and the City	30
	Gentrification and Super-Diversity	33
	Beyond Romanticising Encounter	38
	Conviviality	40

Habitus: Disruption and Possibility	42
A Return to Place	48
Conclusion	49
References	51
3 Back at School: Research Methods, Design and Reflexive Dramaturgy	59
Introduction	59
The Research Environment: The Case Study Primary Schools and Their Geographies	62
Leewood School: An Area of Established Gentrification	64
Junction School: An Area of Emerging Gentrification	65
Fernhill School: An Area of Partial Gentrification	66
Back to School: The Primary School as a Total Institution?	68
Back to School: Dramaturgy and Managing Research Environments	73
Research Design and Processes	77
The Children and Their Interviews	79
The Adults and Their Interviews	81
Conclusions	84
References	86
4 The Children's Friendships: Difference, Commonality and Proximity	89
Introduction	89
Children's Friendship Relations Across Ethnic and Social Difference: A Review	92
Bridging Different Worlds?	92
Friendship in Middle Childhood: Being Eight and Nine Years Old	94
Friendships in Super-Diverse Classrooms	98
Social Networks	100
Crimson Class, Leewood School	104
Burgundy Class, Junction School	105

Scarlet Class, Fernhill School	106
Recognising Difference: Convivial Dispositions?	109
Fluid Identifications and Complex Friendship Practices	114
Conclusion	116
References	119
5 Children's Agency and Adult Intervention: Children's Friendships Through Adult Eyes	123
Introduction	123
School Policy and Practices	124
Managing Friendships and Feelings	126
Teachers' Readings of Children's Friendships	129
Reflections on Teachers' Management of Children's Friendships	135
Parental Responses to Children's Friendships: Social Mix and Mixing	137
The Ease and Comfort of Similarity	138
After School Activities	140
Conclusion	144
References	147
6 Extended Social and Spatial Encounters in Primary School Worlds	151
Introduction	151
Connecting and Making Up Social Space: Primary Schools, Encounter and Places	153
Convivial Space? Social Exchange and Friendship-Making in Primary School Worlds	157
Schools as Connective Conviviality Sites	162
Home Spaces, Social Intimacy and School-Based Friendships	167
Conclusions	173
References	175

7	Antagonisms, Ambivalences and Association: Parents' Friendships and Strategies for Managing Difference in Everyday Life	179
	Introduction	179
	A Continuum	180
	Refusing Diversity	181
	Accepting Homophily	183
	Reflexive About Homophily and Difference	188
	Enablers	192
	Privileged Clusters?	198
	Conclusion	202
	References	204
8	Conclusion: Understanding Friendship and Diversity	207
	Introduction	207
	Contributing Themes	209
	Civility and Conviviality	212
	What Weighting for Friendships?	217
	References	220
	Appendix	223
	Index	235