

Contents

1

INTRODUCTION

1

- Contributions to Rational Decision Making 2
- Purpose of Evaluation Research 4
- Comparison Between Evaluation and Other Research 6

2

PURPOSES OF EVALUATION

10

- Overt and Covert Purposes 11
- Intended Uses 13
- Whose Use Shall Be Served? 18
- Structure of the Evaluation 19

3

FORMULATING THE QUESTION AND MEASURING THE ANSWER 24

- Formulating Program Goals 26
- Choices Among Goals 30
- Yardsticks 32
- Unanticipated Consequences 32
- Measurement: Indicators of Outcome 34
- Specification of the Program 43
- Measurement: Input Variables and Intervening Variables 45
- Collection of Data 53

4

DESIGN OF THE EVALUATION 60

- Experimental Design 60
- Quasi-experimental Designs 67
- Nonexperimental Designs 73
- Comparative Evaluation of Programs 78
- Theory and Replication 84
- Cost-Benefit Analysis 84
- From Evaluation to Planning, Programming, and Budgeting 88

5

THE TURBULENT SETTING OF THE ACTION PROGRAM 92

- The Shifting Program 93
- Relationships with Program Personnel 98
- The Social Context of the Program 107

6

UTILIZATION OF EVALUATION RESULTS 110

- The Evaluator's Role 111
- Organizational Resistances 113
- Better Dissemination of Evaluation Results 121
- The Gap Between Evaluation and Action Recommendations 124
- The Effect of "Little Effect" 126

BIBLIOGRAPHY	129
Conceptual and Methodological Issues	129
Illustrative Evaluation Studies	145
References on Design, Measurement, Sampling, and Analysis	150
 INDEX	 155