

ULYSSES, FILM AND VISUAL CULTURE

PHILIP SICKER

Fordham University

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| List of Figures | page viii |
| Acknowledgments | ix |
| List of Abbreviations | x |
| Introduction: Joyce's Spectacles: Technologies of Sight | i |
| 1 Ineluctable Visuality: Stephen's Ways of Seeing | 21 |
| 2 "Caught in This Burning Scene": Stephen in the Gaze of Others | 64 |
| 3 Snapshots from the Pavement: Bloom as Modernist Flâneur | 100 |
| 4 Painting Motion: "Wandering Rocks" as Futurist Narrative | 144 |
| 5 "Alone in the Hiding Twilight": Bloom's Cinematic Gaze in "Nausicaa" | 175 |
| 6 Mirages in the Lamp Glow: "Circe" and Méliès's Dream Cinema | 200 |
| 7 Vision Conjoined: Stephen and Bloom's Intersubjective Perception | 222 |
| Works Cited | 252 |
| Index | 263 |