

CONTENTS

Series Editors' Introduction	v
Acknowledgments	vi
1. Who Will Determine Expectations?	1
Why Write a Book on Ethnographic Method Discussions?	1
Should Ethnographers Write Method Discussions?	2
Underdeveloped Discussions	2
Reasons Not to Discuss Ethnographic Method	3
Reasons to Discuss Ethnographic Method	4
2. Depicting Ethnographic Method	5
What Is Ethnographic Research?	5
Ethnography = Grounded Theory (but It Isn't the Same)	8
Ethnography = Naturalistic Inquiry (but It Isn't the Same)	10
How Could Ethnographic Method Be Depicted?	10
Criteria and Standards for Judging Ethnographic Method	10
Unique or Parallel Criteria?	11
Truth as the Ultimate Objective	12
Postmodernist Critiques of Truth as a Goal	13
Truth as a Legitimate Research Goal	14
Adapting Conventional Criteria	14
3. Working Toward Veracity	18
Veracity as the First Goal to Target	18
Inevitable Limits on Veracity	19
Research Coping Tactics	20
Tactic 1: Prolonged Fieldwork	20
Tactic 2: Seeking Out Reorienting or Disconfirming Observations	21
Tactic 3: Good Participative Role Relationships	22
Tactic 4: Attentiveness to Speech and Interactional Contexts	26
Tactic 5: Multiple Modes of Data Collection	28
4. Working Toward Objectivity	29
Objectivity as a Goal	29
Inevitable Limits on Objectivity	31
Research Coping Tactics	33
Tactic 1: Trail of the Ethnographer's Path	33

Tactic 2: Respondent Validation	37
Tactic 3: Feedback From Outsiders	38
Tactic 4: Interrater Checks on Indexing and Coding	39
Tactic 5: Comprehensive Data Archive	43
5. Working Toward Perspicacity	47
Perspicacity as a Goal	47
Inevitable Limits on Perspicacity	49
Research Coping Tactics	52
Tactic 1: Intense Consideration of the Data	52
Tactic 2: Exploration	57
Reporting of Detail Relevant for Theory, Comparison, and Practice	61
6. Putting Expectations To Use	64
An Editorial and Funding Review Checklist for Ethnographic Method	64
Appendix	68
Editorial and Funding Review Checklist for Ethnographic Method	68
Notes	75
References	86
About The Author	97