

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
	Approaches to the Study of Religion	2
	Studying Religion in America	6
	Further Reading	7
2	The History and Memory of Religion in America	9
	Church History and the Protestant Moral Establishment	11
	Contested Narratives in the Age of Church History	13
	The Challenge of American Religious History	17
	Public Memory and Civil Religion	19
	Further Reading	23
3	Religion and Colonialism in Early America, 1400s to 1770s	25
	Native American Religions	25
	African Religions	28
	European Reformations	31
	Spanish Catholicism and Colonization	35
	French Catholicism and Colonization	39
	English Protestantism and Colonization	44

	The Great Awakening and Evangelical Protestantism	50
	Further Reading	56
4	Religion in a New Nation, 1770s to 1860s	58
	Faith, Reason, and Revolution	59
	Denominational Life and the Second Great Awakening	61
	Slavery, Abolitionism, and Civil War	66
	Religious Experimentation and New Religious Movements	70
	Immigration, Expansion, and Religious Diversity	75
	Further Reading	83
5	Religion in a Modernizing America, 1860s to 1920s	85
	Religion and Race after the Civil War	86
	White Protestant Alliances and Divisions	91
	European Immigration and Ethnic Diversity	97
	Asian and Native American Religions	101
	Further Reading	107
6	Religious Diversity in a Globalizing America, 1920s to 2010s	110
	The Great Depression and the Interwar Years	111
	World War II and the Judeo-Christian Tradition	114
	Social Discontent and Religious Reform	120
	White Christian Conservatism and the Religious Right	128
	New Immigration and Religious Pluralism	133
	Further Reading	141
7	Conclusion	143
	Religious Pluralism Reconsidered	145
	More Questions Than Answers	148
	Further Reading	149
	Index	150