

CONTENTS

|   |    |
|---|----|
| IntroductionEmrys D. Jones and Victoria Joule  | 1  |
| Part I Theatre   |    |
| Nell Gwyn's Breasts and Colley Cibber's Shirts: CelebrityActors and Their Famous "Parts"Elaine McGirr | 13 |
| Anne Oldfield's Domestic Interiors: Auctions, MaterialCulture and CelebrityClaudine van Hensbergen    | 35 |
| "Peeping" and Public Intimacy in Susanna Centlivre'sThe Busy Body (1709)Victoria Joule         | 59 |
| Garrick, DyingJames Harriman-Smith   | 83 |

Part II Politics

- Doctor Sacheverell and the Politics of Celebrity
in Post-Revolutionary Britain 111
Brian Cowan
- Farcical Politics: Fielding's Public Emotion 139
Rebecca Tierney-Hynes
- "A Man in Love": Intimacy and Political Celebrity
in the Early Eighteenth Century 165
Emrys D. Jones

Part III Authorship

- "The ARMS of Friendship": John Dunton's Platonic
Acquisitions 189
Nicola Parsons
- "I Make a Very Shining Figure": Lady Mary Wortley
Montagu and the Intimate Publicity of Authorship 211
Clare Brant
- Foote, Fox, and the Mysterious Mrs Grieve: Print Celebrity
and Imposture 233
Ruth Scobie

Part IV Intimate Notoriety: A Case Study

- Notoriety's Public Interiors: Mid-Georgians Combining
Celebrity and Intimacy, with an Appendix on the Rotunda
at Ranelagh 259
George Rousseau

Epilogue: Body Double—Katharine Hepburn at Madame Tussauds
Laura Engel

293

Index 299