

Contents

1	Geographies of the University: An Introduction	1
	Michael Heffernan, Laura Suarsana, and Peter Meusburger
Part I Historical Perspectives
2	The Repertorium Academicum Germanicum (RAG) and the Geography of German Universities and Academics (1350–1550) . . .	23
	Rainer Christoph Schwinges
3	Scientific and Cultural Relations between Heidelberg University and Hungary over Five Centuries	43
	Peter Meusburger and Ferenc Probáld
4	Catchment Areas and Killing Fields: Towards an Intellectual Geography of the Thirty Years' War	135
	Howard Hotson
5	A Political Geography of University Foundation: The Case of the Danish Monarchy	193
	Hanne Kirstine Adriansen and Inge Adriansen
6	“A Small Town of Character”: Locating a New Scottish University, 1963–1965	219
	Michael Heffernan and Heike Jöns
Part II The University, Knowledge, and Governance
7	Knowledge Environments at Universities: Some Theoretical and Methodological Considerations	253
	Peter Meusburger

8	Innovation Governance: From the “Endless Frontier” to the Triple Helix	291
	Henry Etzkowitz
9	Quality Cultures in Higher Education Institutions—Development of the Quality Culture Inventory	313
	Christine Sattler and Karlheinz Sonntag
10	Agnotology: Ignorance and Absence, or Towards a Sociology of Things that Aren’t There	329
	Jennifer L. Croissant
Part III The University and the City
11	The Civic University and the City	355
	John Goddard
12	City and University—An Architect’s Notes on an Intriguing Spatial Relationship	375
	Helmut Bott
13	Campus–City Relations: Past, Present, and Future	439
	Alexandra C. den Heijer and Flavia T. J. Curvelo Magdaniel
14	Coevolution of Town and Gown: The Heidelberg International Building Exhibition in Search of a Knowledge-based Urbanism for the Twenty-first Century	461
	Carl Zillich
Part IV The University and the Region
15	The Economic Impact of the Universities in the State of Baden-Württemberg	479
	Johannes Glückler, Robert Panitz, and Christian Wuttke
16	The Nonmetropolitan University’s Regional Engagement in the African Context: The Case of Cameroon	511
	Eike W. Schamp
17	African Universities as Employers of Returning Graduates from Germany: The Example of Ghana and Cameroon	541
	Julia Boger
18	China’s Southern Borderlands and ASEAN Higher Education: A Cartography of Connectivity	567
	Anthony Welch

Part V The International University

19 Placing the University: Thinking in and Beyond Globalization	605
Allan Cochrane
20 The University Unbound: How Roots and Routes Intersect	617
Jane Kenway
21 International Education Hubs	637
Jane Knight
The Klaus Tschira Stiftung	657
Index	659