

CONTENTS

	Notes on Contributors	page VII
	Acknowledgments	XII
	Chronology of Literary and Cultural Disability Studies	XIII
I	Introduction: On Reading Disability in Literature CLARE BARKER AND STUART MURRAY	I
PART I ACROSS LITERATURES
2	Monsters, Saints, and Sinners: Disability in Medieval Literature EDWARD WHEATLEY	17
3	Early Modern Literature and Disability Studies ALLISON P. HOBGOOD AND DAVID HOUSTON WOOD	32
4	Disability and Deformity: Function Impairment and Aesthetics in the Long Eighteenth Century ESSAKA JOSHUA	47
5	Embodying Affliction in Nineteenth-Century Fiction MARTHA STODDARD HOLMES	62
6	Paralyzed Modernities and Biofutures: Bodies and Minds in Modern Literature MICHAEL DAVIDSON	74
7	The Ambiguities of Inclusion: Disability in Contemporary Literature STUART MURRAY	90
8	“Radiant Affliction”: Disability Narratives in Postcolonial Literature CLARE BARKER	104

CONTENTS

PART II ACROSS CRITICAL METHODS

9	Disability and the Edges of Intersectionality ALISON KAHER AND EUNJUNG KIM	123
10	The World-Making Potential of Contemporary Crip/Queer Literary and Cultural Production ROBERT MCRUER	139
11	Race and Disability in US Literature MICHELLE JARMAN	155
12	Disability and Women's Writing SAMI SCHALK	170
13	Disability in Genre Fiction RIA CHEYNE	185
14	Signifying Selves: Disability and Life Writing G. THOMAS COUSER	199
15	Disability Rhetorics JAY DOLMAGE	212
16	Literary Disability Culture Imaginations at Work: An Afterword PETRA KUPPERS	227
	Recommended Reading	233
	Index	243