

Romance Rewritten

The Evolution of Middle English Romance

A Tribute to Helen Cooper

Edited by

ELIZABETH ARCHIBALD, MEGAN G. LEITCH and CORINNE SAUNDERS

D. S. BREWER

Contents

Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction. Middle English Romance: The Motifs and the Critics Megan G. Leitch	1
I. Romance Disruptions	25
1. Medieval Romance Mischief Neil Cartlidge	27
2. Rewriting Chivalric Encounters: Cultural Anxieties and Social Critique in the Fourteenth Century Marcel Elias	49
3. Malory's Comedy Christopher Cannon	67
II. Romance and Narrative Strategies	83
4. Beginning with the Ending: Narrative Techniques and their Significance in Chaucer's Knight's Tale Jill Mann	85
5. The Riddle of 'Apollonius': 'A Bok for King Richardes Sake' R. F. Yeager	103
6. Malory and the Post-Vulgate Cycle Elizabeth Archibald	115
7. Towards a Gestural Lexicon of Medieval English Romance Barry Windeatt	133
III. Romance and Spiritual Priorities	153
8. Giving Freely in Sir Cleges : The Economy of Salvation and the Gift of Romance Marco Nievergelt	155

Contents

9.	From Magic to Miracle: Reframing Chevalere Assigne Miriam Edlich-Muth	173
10.	Lifting the Veil: Voices, Visions, and Destiny in Malory's Morte Darthur Corinne Saunders	189
IV.	Late Romance	207
11.	The Intelligence of The Court of Love Ad Putter	209
12.	The Squire of Low Degree and the Penumbra of Romance Narrative in the Early Sixteenth Century Julia Boffey and A. S. G. Edwards	229
13.	Contested Chivalry: Youth at War in Walter Scott and Charlotte M. Yonge Andrew Lynch	241
	Works Cited	257
	Index	285