

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| PREFACE | 7 |
| I. A COURT BECOMES A PARLIAMENT | 9 |
| Parliament is Feudal | 9 |
| The Arrival of the Commons | 14 |
| II. THE COMMONS BECOME LEGISLATORS | 22 |
| The Position of the Commons | 22 |
| Petition and Bill | 25 |
| III. LIBERTY OUT OF TYRANNY | 32 |
| Freedom of Speech | 33 |
| Freedom from Arrest | 38 |
| The Power to Commit | 40 |
| IV. RULES, CLERKS, RECORDS | 43 |
| Early History of Procedure | 43 |
| Clerks and Journals | 53 |
| The Publication of Proceedings and Debates | 59 |
| V. CONSENT TO TAXATION | 65 |
| The Consent of Parliament to Taxation is Finally Established | 65 |
| The Commons Gain Sole Control of Taxation | 69 |
| VI. THE MINISTRY BECOMES RESPONSIBLE TO THE COMMONS | 73 |
| Early Attempts to Control Policy | 73 |
| Ministerial Responsibility | 80 |
| VII. THE COMMONS REPRESENT THE PEOPLE | 93 |
| Early History of Representation | 94 |
| Reform of the Electoral System | 99 |
| The Party System | 107 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| VIII. THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE SPEAKER | 119 |
| Early History of the Speakership | 119 |
| The Elimination of Royal Influence | 122 |
| The Speaker gives up Political Activity and Party Connexion | 123 |
| IX. THE MODERNIZATION OF PROCEDURE | 130 |
| Procedural Reform, 1800-77 | 130 |
| Obstruction and Disorderly Conduct, 1877-88 | 137 |
| Standing Committees | 143 |
| The Government takes the Time of the House | 146 |
| X. THE COMMONS CONTROL EXPENDITURE | 150 |
| History of the Attempt | 151 |
| The Modern System | 160 |
| XI. PARLIAMENT DELEGATES POWER TO MAKE LAW | 171 |
| XII. THE SECOND CHAMBER | 181 |
| The Composition of the House of Lords | 182 |
| The Financial and Legislative Powers of the House of Lords | 188 |
| The Jurisdiction of the House of Lords | 193 |
| XIII. THE SECRET GARDEN OF THE CROWN | 199 |
| POSTSCRIPT | 207 |
| INDEX | 209 |

List of Illustrations between pages 108 and 109

1. The Opening of Parliament in 1523
- .. The House of Commons in 1624
3. The House of Commons in 1741/2
4. The House of Lords in 1755. The King sitting on the Throne, the Commons attending him at the end of the Session
5. The House of Lords in 1808
6. The House of Commons in 1808
7. The Reformed House of Commons, 1834
8. The House of Commons, 7 May, 1940 (After the painting by John Worsley)