

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	vii
Introduction Charles P. Kindleberger	1
Part I. The Theory of the International Corporation
1. A Theory of Direct Foreign Investment Robert Z. Aliber	17
2. The Efficiency and Welfare Implications of the International Corporation Harry G. Johnson	35
3. Multinational Corporations and International Oligopoly: The Non-American Challenge Stephen Hymer and Robert Rowthorn	57
Part II. Finance and Technology
4. Direct Investment Controls and the Balance of Payments H. David Willey	95
5. The Supply of Funds for U.S. Direct Foreign Investment Eli Shapiro and Francis J. Deastlov	121
6. Technology, United States Investment, and European Economic Growth John H. Dunning	141
Part III. Law and Politics
7. The International Firm and the National Jurisdiction Seymour J. Rubin	179
8. The Myth of National Interdependence Kenneth N. Waltz	205

CONTENTS

Part IV. Three Industry Studies

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 9. The Multinational Corporation in World Petroleum
M. A. Adelman | 227 |
| 10. U.S. Automotive Investments Abroad
J. Wilner Sundelson | 243 |
| 11. American Banks in Europe
Julien-Pierre Koszul | 273 |

Part V. Three Country Studies

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 12. Australia as Host to the International Corporation
Donald T. Brash | 293 |
| 13. Direct Foreign Investment in Latin America
Carlos F. Díaz Alejandro | 319 |
| 14. Japan as Host to the International Corporation
M. Y. Yoshino | 345 |

Part VI. Prospects for the Future

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 15. Future of the Multinational Enterprise
Raymond Vernon | 373 |
| Index | 401 |