Contents

1	Introduction: Origins of Human Security	1
	1.1 Origins	2
	1.2 Emergence of Human Security	3
	1.3 Conceptual Overview	5
	1.4 Conclusion	10
	References	11
2	Human Rights and State Responsibilities	13
	2.1 Human Security in Conversation with Sovereignty	15
	2.2 Rights and Responsibility	20
	2.3 Conclusion	25
	References	26
3	States and Citizens: Reciprocal Rights and Responsibilities	29
	3.1 Contribution of the GAP	33
	3.2 Consequences: (Re)locating Responsibility and Accountability for Human Security	35
	3.2.1 National and International	36
	3.2.2 Local and Global	37
	3.3 Conclusion	37
	References	39

Bindenagel Šehovi?, Annamarie
Reimagining state and human security beyond borders

digitalisiert durch:
IDS Basel Bern

4 Beyond the Binary: Beyond States, Beyond Citizens 41
4.1 Changing Rules of the Game 43
4.2 Caveats: Without Responsibility—Reneged Rights 44
4.3 Re-poling Governmentality for Order 46
4.4 State/Sub-State/Supra-State 47
4.4.1 Low-Order Human Security 48
4.4.2 High-Order Human Security 49
4.5 Military 51
4.6 Conclusion 53
References 54

5 Re-Bordering State Responsibilities and Human Rights 57
5.1 Borders 58
5.2 Bordering Health 63
5.3 Migrating Citizens(ships): Mitigating Human (In)Securities 67
5.4 Conclusion 69
References 71

6 Health and Human Security 73
6.1 The Right to Health 74
6.2 HIV and AIDS and Ebola: Evidencing the Right to Health/Evaluating Responsibilities 77
6.2.1 HIV and AIDS 78
6.2.2 Ebola to Zika 79
6.3 Health Security at Borders 80
6.4 Health Security Beyond Borders 83
6.5 Conclusion 86
References 87

7 Reimagining State and Human Security Beyond Borders 91
7.1 Right and Responsibility for Health and Human Security 92
7.2 Low-Ordering Arrangements 93
7.3 High-Ordering Solutions 95
7.4 Conclusion 98
References 99

Index 101