

Contents

Acknowledgements — v

0. Outline of the Argument, Basic Hypotheses, and Remarks on Methodology — 1

I. The Cultural Net — 34

The Basic Metaphor — 34

Nodes and Contact Zones — 45

Processes and Rationales of Assembly — 53

Formal Organization and Mediatedness — 75

Temporal Incongruences — 84

Accessibility — 92

Borderlines — 99

Transnational Cultural Agencies — 115

Control and Demand — 134

Basic Prerequisites — 150

The Economy of Cultural Transfer — 153

II. Mass Media, Early Modern — 157

The Masses — 157

Mediality — 164

The “Orientation Toward The Message” — 174

The Predilection for Tragedy — 190

Devices of Enticement: Love, Horror, and Marvel — 202

Mass Media, Early Modern and Present — 209

III. Historical Issues, Theoretical Perspectives — 212

Some Case Studies — 212

“Rootedness”: Johann Gottfried Herder — 232

“National Literatures”: Topoi and Languages — 250

“National” Styles? “Hybridity”? “Third Spaces”? — 274

IV. Concluding Remarks — 292

Culture as Network: Subversive and Innovative Potentialities — 292

Limits of the Basic Metaphor — 303

References — 313