

BOURDIEU, LANGUAGE-BASED ETHNOGRAPHIES AND REFLEXIVITY

Putting Theory into Practice

Michael Grenfell and Kate Pahl

WITH CONTRIBUTIONS FROM
CHERYL McLEAN, CATHERINE COMPTON-LILLY
AND LISYA SELONI

CONTENTS

Introduction

vii

PART I

Theoretical Perspectives: Language-based Ethnographies, Reflexivity and Bourdieu

1

- 1 Language-based Ethnographies
Kate Pahl

3

- 2 Reflexivity
Michael Grenfell

19

- 3 Bourdieu, Ethnography and Reflexivity
Michael Grenfell

37

PART II

Reflexivity in Practice: Case Examples

55

- 4 Re-thinking Literacies with Communities: Literacy
as a Collaborative Concept
Kate Pahl

57

- 5 Reflexive Layers and Longitudinal Research: What we Might Know Across Time
Catherine Compton-Lilly

73

6	Insider Identities: Coming to Know the Ethnographic Researcher Cheryl McLean	91
7	Enacting Reflexivity in Second Language Writing Research: A Personal Account of Cultural Production of Authorial Self and Researcher Perception Lisya Seloni	107
PART III
	Reflexivity and Beyond: In Theory and Practice	131
8	Reflecting on Reflections Kate Pahl	133
9	Bourdieu, Language-based Ethnographies and Reflexivity: In Theory and Practice Michael Grenfell	149
	Conclusion	173
	About the Authors	179
	Bibliography	181
	Index	197