

CONTENTS

A NOTE ON THE PRESENT EDITION	ix
INTRODUCTION
1. Reading a Complex Text	1
2. A Story: The Internal Symbolic Structure	19
3. A Story: Seven Satiric Thrusts	55
The Division of the World	56
The Mass-Media and Proletarianization	59
Power-Hunger and Totalitarianism	61
Betrayal by the Intellectuals	67
The Debauching of Language	73
The Destruction of History and Truth	78
The Anti-Burnham	84
4. The Contemporary Reception	92
5. Author's Intentions and Preconceptions	105
6. Two Unresolved Questions	118
7. Intention and Result: Defence or Misuse of the Novel?	124
Appendix A: The 1943 Outline of Nineteen     Eighty-Four	137
Appendix B: Letter to H. J. Willmetts of May 1944 about Totalitarianism	139
Appendix C: Notes of 1948 towards a Revision of the First Manuscript of Nineteen Eighty-Four	141
Appendix D: Notes of 1948 towards an Article Called "The Labour Government After Three Years"	144
Appendix E: Fredric Warburg's Report on Nineteen     Eighty-Four	147
Appendix F: The Dust-jacket Copy for the First British and American Editions	150
Appendix G: Orwell's Press Release of 15 June 1949 Replying to some Reviews	152
Appendix H: Extract from Letter to Francis A. Hendon of the United Automobile Workers	154

NINETEEN EIGHTY-FOUR
[ with invented section headings ]

Part I [THE DEAD WORLD OF AIRSTRIP ONE]

I	[The Beginning of the Diary]	157
II	[The Parsons Family]	173
III	[Memories of his Mother and Morning Exercises]	181
IV	[A Day at the Desk in the Ministry of Truth]	188
V	[In the Canteen: Talks to Syme about Newspeak and Sees the Girl]	197
VI	[Memories of his Wife and Reflections on Sexual Puritanism]	211
VII	[Reflections on the Proles and on Jones, Aaronson, and Rutherford]	216
VIII	[Winston among the Proles, Talking to them; Mr Charrington and the Spare Room]	226

Part II [LOVE AND CONSPIRACY]

I	[Julia's Message and the Assignment]	247
II	[The Love-Making in the Golden Country]	257
III	[Julia's Practical Outlook]	265
IV	[Winston and Julia Hire and Use Mr. Charrington's Room]	274
V	[They Discuss whether the Brotherhood Exist]	283
VI	[The Message from O'Brien]	292
VII	[Winston has Bad Dreams: the Proles are Human We are Not]	294
VIII	[The Ceremony of Meeting O'Brien]	301
IX	[Winston Reads Goldstein's Testament while Julia Sleeps]	311
[X]	[The Arrest]	346

Part III [DESTROYED AND BORN AGAIN]

I	[The Crowded Cell in the Ministry of Love]	353
II	[O'Brien Comes to his Side: Re-Learning Begins]	365

III	[Understanding is nearly Achieved: the "Last Man" is Broken Down]	384
IV	[The Last Reservation against Big Brother is Exposed]	395
V	[In Room 101]	403
VI	[Reborn into the Living Dead]	407
	APPENDIX: THE PRINCIPLES OF NEWSPEAK	417
	ANNOTATIONS TO THE TEXT	429
	INDEX TO THE INTRODUCTION AND ANNOTATIONS	451
	INDEX TO ORWELL'S TEXT	456