

Contents

Introduction: A Theoretical Framework	xix
Part I Sources of the Europe Heritage
1 The European Inter-Civilizational Constellation	3
2 The Greco-Roman and Judaic Legacies	27
3 Christianity in the Making of Europe	51
4 Between East and West: The Byzantine Legacy and Russia	73
5 The Islamic World and Islam in Europe	91

xv

Part II The Emergence of Modernity

- | | | |
|-----------|---|------------|
| 6 | The Renaissance and the Rise of European Consciousness | 109 |
| 7 | Unity and Divisions in Early Modern European History: The Emergence of a Westernized Europe | 133 |
| 8 | The Enlightenment and the Idea of Europe | 157 |
| 9 | The Rise of the Nation-State and the Allure of Empire: Between Nationalism and Cosmopolitanism | 183 |
| 10 | Europe as a World Historical Region: A Global Perspective on the European Formation of Modernity | 215 |
| 11 | The Historical Regions of Europe: Civilizational Backgrounds and Multiple Routes to Modernity | 241 |
| 12 | Europe in the Short Twentieth Century: Conflicting Projects of Modernity | 265 |

Part III The Present and Its Discontents

- | | | |
|-----------|---|------------|
| 13 | Europe Since 1989: Globalization, Europeanization and the Crisis of the Nation-State in Late Modernity | 305 |
| 14 | Age of Austerity: Contradictions of Capitalism and Democracy and the Crisis of European Integration | 341 |

Contents xvii

15	'The Centre Cannot Hold': The Return of Nationalism and the Spectre of Authoritarian Democracy	365
16	Memory, Heritage and History: The European Heritage as a Conflict of Interpretations	399
	Conclusion: Europe—A Defence	421
	Bibliography	429
	Index	467
	Map of Europe	479