

Contents

Preface

Introduction

Tradition in Disrepute	1
Enlightenment	4
The Meaning of Tradition	12
The Traditionality of Reason	21
Stocks and Possessions	25
The Intertwinement of Tradition and the Untraditional	27
Tradition as the Guiding Pattern	32
1. In the Grip of the Past
The Past in the Present	34
Tradition as a Starting Point and Constituent of New Beliefs and Patterns of Action	44
Differing Depths of Tradition within the Individual	46
The Sense of the Past and Historiography	54
2. The Endurance of Past Objects
The Presence of the Past in Artifacts	63
The Transcendence of the Transience of Physical Artifacts	77
The Presence of the Past in the Acquisition and Possession of Knowledge	89
Religious Knowledge	94
The Presence of the Past in Works of Science and Scholarship	100
The Presence of the Past in Literary Works	140
3. The Endurance of Past Practices
The Presence of the Past in Society	162

4. Stability and Change in Tradition
Why Does the Past Hold the Present in Its Grip?	195
5. Why Traditions Change: Endogenous Factors
Rationalization and Correction	213
Imagination	228
The Temptation of Positive Antitraditional Traditions	235
6. Why Traditions Change: Exogenous Factors
Change in Tradition through Syncretism:
The Pressure of an Alien Tradition	240
Syncretism in the Movement of Tradition between Center and Periphery	244
Expansion of the Center within a Society	246
Expansion of the Center beyond Its Own Society	249
Expansion of the Center: Resistance	254
Resistance to the Expansion of the Internal Center	255
Resistance against an External Center	256
Changes in Traditions and Changes in Circumstances	258
7. Patterns of Change and Stability in Tradition
The Bearers of Tradition	262
The Boundaries of a Tradition: Families of Traditions	263
The Association of Traditions	273
Conflicts of Tradition	279
The Dissociation of Traditions	280
The Passing Away of Traditions	283
8. Tradition and the Rationalization of Societies
The Rationalization of the World	291
9. The Prospects of Tradition
The Prospects of Rationalization	313
The Prospects of Tradition in the Discomfiture of Progressivism	316
The Immediate and the Remote Prospects	321
10. The Permanent Task
The Unchartedness of the World	326
The Temporal Integration of Society	327
Traditionality as an Intrinsic Value	328
Index	331