

---

Contents

Acknowledgements.....	vi
The Authors.....	ix
Introduction.....	1

PART I. CREATIVITY AND INNOVATION

1. Creativity and Talent Michael A. Wallach .....	13
2. The Creative Personality Ravenna Helson .....	29
3. Adaptors and Innovators: Problem Solvers in Organizations Michael Kirton .....	65
4. Problem Solving and Creativity Geir Kaufmann .....	87
5. From Individual Creativity to Organizational Innovation Teresa M. Amabile .....	139
6. Educational Implications of Creativity Research: An Updated Rationale for Creative Learning Scott G. Isaksen .....	167
7. Trial by Fire in an Industrial Setting. A Practical Evaluation of Three Creative Problem-Solving Techniques Stanley S. Gryskiewicz .....	205
8. Applying Experimental Research on Group Problem Solving to Organizations L. Richard Hoffman .....	233

PART II. MANAGEMENT, ORGANIZATION, AND INNOVATION

9. The Innovation Design Dilemma: Some Notes on its Relevance and Solutions Jonny Holbek .....	253
10. A Process Model of Internal Corporate Venturing in the Diversified Major Firm Robert A. Burgelman .....	279
11. Organizational Effects on Creativity. The Use of Roles in a Technical Audit of Organizations Morris I. Stein .....	311

CONTENTS

---

12. Entrepreneurship and Strategic Management: Synergy or Antagony? Kjell Grønhaug and Torger Reve .....	331
13. "Promoters"—Key Persons for the Development and Marketing of Innovative Industrial Products Hans G. Gemünden .....	347
14. On Social Factors in Administrative Innovation Arthur L. Stinchcombe .....	375
PART III. KNOWLEDGE, INNOVATION, AND GROWTH
15. Lead Users: A Source of Novel Product Concepts Eric von Hippel .....	387
16. The New Product Learning Cycle Modesto A. Maidique and Billie J. Zirger .....	407
17. Evaluating Research—ROI is not Enough George F. Mechlin and Daniel Berg .....	433
18. The Role of the Research University in the Spin-off of High-Technology Companies Everett M. Rogers .....	443
19. Patents and the Measurement of Technological Change Bjørn L. Basberg .....	457
20. Market Structure and Innovation Einar Hope .....	475
21. Continuity in the Potential for Innovation Reidar Grønhaug .....	491
Name Index .....	515
Subject Index .....	525