

LAYING OUT THE BONES

DEATH AND DYING
IN THE MODERN
IRISH NOVEL

BRIDGET ENGLISH

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
-----------------	----

INTRODUCTION

“Traversing the Dismal Fields”

Death and Dying in Modern Ireland	i
-----------------------------------	---

1. Death and Narrative Regeneration

James Joyce’s Ulysses	23
------------------------------	----

2. The Eve of All Souls and the Death of Desire

Kate O’Brien’s The Ante-Room	56
-------------------------------------	----

3. Deathbed Confessions and Unraveling Narration

Samuel Beckett’s Malone Dies	87
-------------------------------------	----

4. Ritual and Denial in a World Stripped of Illusion

John McGahern’s The Barracks	119
-------------------------------------	-----

5. Death without Resurrection and the Modern Wake

Anne Enright’s The Gathering	150
-------------------------------------	-----

CONCLUSION

“As You Were before You Rested”

Death and the Afterlife of the Irish Wake	180
---	-----

Notes	193
-------	-----

Bibliography	213
--------------	-----

Index	229
-------	-----