

CONTENTS

1	Culture as Migration	1
2	Is There a Gibbon in the House? Migration, Post-nationality and the Fall and Rise of Europe	17
3	Roma and Roaming: Borders, Nomads and Myth	31
4	Of Sirens, Science and Oyster Shells: Hypatia the Philosopher from Gibbon to Black Athena	51
5	Cultural Migration as Protestant Nostalgia: (1) British Listeners in Italy	65
6	Cultural Migration as Protestant Nostalgia: (2) Milton, Ruskin and Religious Longing	79
7	Cultural Migration as Protestant Nostalgia: (3) Purcell, the Popish Plot and the Politics of Latin	85
8	Migrant Consciences in the Age of Empire: Charles Kingsley, Governor Eyre and the Morant Bay Rising	97

9	Beyond the National Stereotype: Benedict Anderson and the Bengal Emergency of 1905–06	125
10	Migrating Stories: How Textbooks Fired a Canon	161
11	Towards a New World Order: Literacy, Democracy and Literature in India and Africa, 1930–1965	173
12	World Music: Listening to Steve Reich Listening to Africa; Listening to György Ligeti Listening to Reich	185
13	A Cultural Cosmopolis	195
	Acknowledgements	205
	Index	207